

Recent CFM Program Guides (Hardcopy)

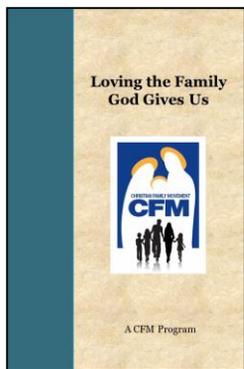

Your group can choose any hardcopy CFM program guide for your membership year. One CFM annual program guide is free to members as a benefit of membership. For nearly 70 years, CFM has been providing family relevant program materials to help our members put their faith into action in their homes, workplaces, and communities. CFMers around the country donate their work to produce these program materials. Visit www.cfm.org for more titles. Contact: office@cfm.org 800-581-9824

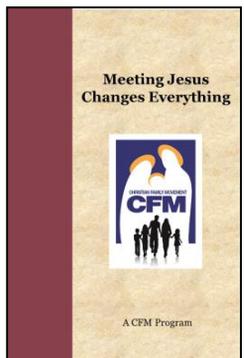

Embracing the Mission

strives to help form members into intentional disciples, by offering ways they can bring the Good News of the Christian message to their immediate communities of parish, neighborhood, schools, and society. Families find that the Social Inquiry process of Observe, Judge, Act, ultimately becomes part of who they are. They are strengthened, as individuals and together, to interpret the signs of the times and act to bring about the Kingdom of God. Each meeting in this book includes suggestions for actions related to the meeting topic. Includes 3 "Family and Community Meeting" plans, ideal for inviting more families to experience CFM.

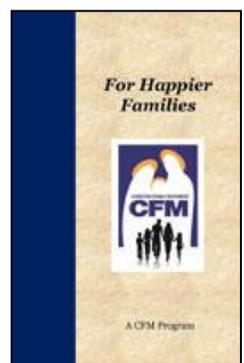

Loving the Family God Gives Us

The peace, happiness, and justice in society depends on strong and happy families. This new program will guide for reflection on the commonality of many kinds of family relationships: being created by God, being the child of a father, being the child of a mother, complementarity, loving our brothers, loving our sisters, having the opportunity to experience intimacy, the blessings of generations and extended family, and also the universal experience of being a child, something even Jesus himself experienced.

Meeting Jesus Changes Everything

The Gospels tell many stories of people whose lives were changed because they met Jesus. To be Jesus' disciples, we must meet him for ourselves and come closer to him. Jesus wants us to encounter him in our own lives and in our families. Christian Family Movement members aim to make Jesus our role model for encountering and helping others. Each chapter offers CFM Action Group participants opportunities for prayer, reflection on the Scripture, and discussion on family topics that lead to action for participating in the mission of Jesus Christ.

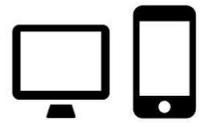

For Happier Families – Introduction to CFM and Observe, Judge, Act Recommended book for new groups

In this book, participants will consider, pray, discuss, and take concrete action on ways that individuals, couples and families can participate in bringing the light of faith to their families, parishes, and communities. For Happier Families includes 8 meetings for adults, optional activities to use if children attend, and discussion questions to share with the whole family at home.

CFM Electronic Programs (PDF format)

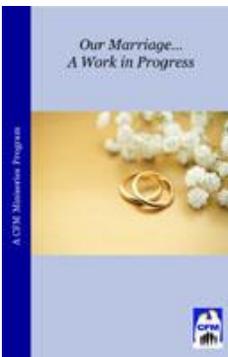

Upon request, these programs will be delivered electronically, as a PDF file. Members can print a hardcopy or read the file on a handheld device. There is no additional charge to members for use of CFM electronic programs. We hope to provide flexibility for our members to meet the unique interests and needs of their local group. Please note that these programs range in length from 3 to 7 meetings. You may need more than one electronic program to fill a membership year. Or, choose a short electronic program to supplement your hardcopy program book.

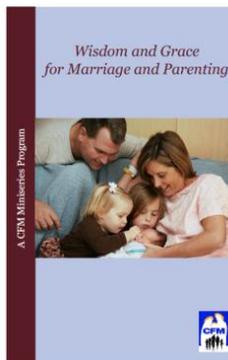

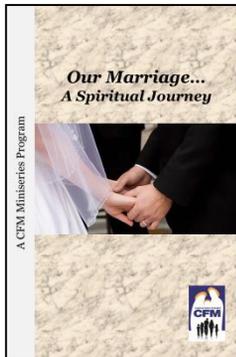

The Grand Adventure: A New Call to Grandparenting

This six-meeting grandparenting program was written by Deacon Gary and Kay Aitchison, past Executive Directors and current International CFM Presidents. The Grand Adventure was created in response to an observed need in today's society to make better use of the grandparenting connection in family life. The program was inspired by and modeled from the many dynamic and committed grandparents who share their time, talent, gifts and charisms with their grandchildren. 6 meetings.

Our Marriage...A Work in Progress and Our Marriage...A Spiritual Journey

Each of these four meeting mini-series guide couples as they grow together in their marriage vocation. A Work in Progress explores areas of marriage that need ongoing time and effort. A Spiritual Journey focuses on the spiritual journey of the couple.

Wisdom and Grace for Marriage and Parenting

This CFM mini-series consists of five meetings designed for married couples that also address their vocation as parents. The five meetings are based on Catholic teaching on marriage and research in marriage and parenting skills. Each meeting focuses on a distinct topic aimed at engaging the couples in the life of faith rooted in baptism and expressed in action. Couples learn how their skills as parents can also help their marriages-and their skills at marriage will help their parenting. 5 meetings.

Called to Wisdom

A series of seven meetings written for groups in the second half of family life. Called to Wisdom facilitates Observing, Judging, and Acting for mature CFM groups. 7 meetings.

Please note that the programs listed on this page are not hardcopy books.