

Radio Queen's University Board of Directors Nomination Form

Volunteering on the Radio Queen's University Board of Directors is an opportunity to provide direct input into the organization, to help drive and develop CFRC's capacity for sustained innovative radio programming, to help the station gain exposure to different points of view, and to build lasting relationships with our community.

Radio Queen's University is a governance board. Governance is about making decisions that give overall direction to CFRC, setting annual priorities, ensuring there are sufficient resources to accomplish the work, and setting policy.

Directors commit to:

- ✓ Attend monthly 1 hour meetings. (online for COVID safety)
- ✓ Contribute effectively to the work of at least one RQU committee.
- ✓ Read all monthly reports, meeting agendas and minutes, budgets, and other documents.
- ✓ Participate in email discussions and respond to emails in a timely fashion.
- ✓ Attend the RQU AGM (this year January 12th, 2022 via zoom)

To submit a nomination, please complete the following fillable questionnaire and return it to the Board President, Daniel Beals, in person or by email (board@cfrc.ca). Nominations after January 6th will have to be approved by the board after the AGM on January 12th. E-signatures and scans are accepted due to COVID 19 pandemic.

Please review the following materials:

Radio Queen's University Bylaws
Radio Queen's University Mandate and Mission

Radio Queen's University Board Nomination Form

1. Why would you like to serve on the RQU's board?

2. Which values/principles of the RQU most align with yours?

3. What do you believe you will bring to the RQU board?

4. Tell us about any relevant experience you may have, for example, volunteering, working in the non-profit sector, fundraising, etc. What roles did you play and what kinds of projects excited you most?

5. How much time per month can you contribute to the work of the RQU Board?

6. Directors are expected to participate in committee work and sit on at least one committee. Which three committees, in order of preference, are you most interested in?

Committees:

___ Finance and Fundraising

___ Marketing and Outreach

___ Human Resources

___ Policy

7. The Board of Directors composition requires representatives from the following stakeholder constituencies for 2021-22. Which constituency do you represent?

___ AMS Member

___ SGPS Member

___ Indigenous Representative

Radio Queen's University Board Nomination Form

Nominee Name (print):

Nominee Signature:

Date:

Endorsement by Staff or Board Member

Name:

Signature:

Date: