

Paula Hoisington, Net Communications

Senior Vice President, Policy & Government Affairs

As Senior Vice President for Policy & Government Affairs, Ms. Hoisington works with CEOs and senior management of major communications, cable, water and electric utilities. She develops regulatory strategies as well as coordinates public policy forums, assists clients in the identification of strategic alliance partners and facilitates the establishment of corporate and community-based coalitions. Ms. Hoisington plays a vital role in developing clients' business growth and development plans for new market opportunities.

Prior to working for Net Communications, Ms. Hoisington served as the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Community Corrections and a national auditor for the American Correction Association. She is a national expert on Corrections policy.

She serves as the Vice Chair of Central Florida Urban League Board, Chair, Corporate Roundtable National Black Caucus State Legislators, Chair, African American Mayors Association Business Council, Chair Southlake Black Achievers, and Vice Chair Abraham Johnson Legacy Foundation.

Ms. Hoisington was the top African American female executive at the gubernatorial level serving under the leadership of two governors. She also served as the liaison between the agency and the Executive Office of the on all matters involving the implementation of gubernatorial initiatives into departmental programming.

Ms. Hoisington received her Bachelor of Science from the University of Central Florida and Certified as a Public Manager from Florida State University.

Ms. Hoisington has received numerous awards and recognitions to include, 2017, National Black Caucus of State Legislators Outstanding Corporate Partner, 2017 National Congress of Black Women, Dr. C. Delores Tucker Award, Onyx Magazine, 2018, Women on The Move and 2018 Women's Executive Council of Orlando Women's Achievement Award.

Ms. Hoisington served on the Transition Teams for Governor Jeb Bush and Governor Rick Scott and Mayor Jerry Demings.