Hey Chatham Democrats! Have I got a gig for you — and you get to raise funds for our much needed work in the long slog ahead to boot! I buy raffle tickets because we know where the money goes, but never hope to win anything. The day of the drawing, my neighbor and precinct chair came down and tried to drag me to the Democratic breakfast, but I had other plans. A couple hours later, he screamed down the drive and announced I'd won lodging for a week at a destination of my choice! A really cool representative with RCI named Sandra helped me score a cabin at Fontana Village in the Nantabala National Forest! Woohoo! My mother Jane had talked to me about the Joyce Kilmer Memorial Forest forever. At home in the forest and outdoors, I will be hiking, kayaking, searching for wildflowers and plants, watching critters and birds and seeing the magical old growth forests in westernmost North Carolina.
