

BALBOA PARK GARDEN WALK

DISTANCE: APPROX. 1 MILE & 22 MINS

DIFFICULTY: EASY

Route Includes: Pedestrian promenade and garden pathways with slight incline over pedestrian bridge

- 1 Begin at the Inez Grant Parker Memorial Rose Garden on Park Blvd. Follow the rose garden path north, and then veer left heading West over Park Blvd on the pedestrian bridge. Continuing West down El Prado takes you past the Balboa Park Fountain, Reuben H Fleet Science Center and the Natural History Museum, among other sites.
- 2 The Botanical Building and Lilly Pond are on your right so make sure to take a few minutes to enjoy the beautiful orchids, turtles, birds and the serenity of this site.
- 3 On your way back head East and make sure to stop and explore Zoro Garden on the right, a 1915 stone grotto/sunken garden now used as a butterfly habitat. Follow the path back toward the fountain, over the pedestrian bridge, 4 and back to the Inez Grant Parker Memorial Rose Garden.

Walking Map Disclaimer

The difficulty ratings of routes are subjective and based on distance and terrain. You may find routes less or more difficult, depending on your own physical condition. ADA accessibility is not guaranteed. To participate in this walking activity, you should be in good physical condition and feel confident in participating in the exercise. WalkSanDiego is not responsible for any injuries that may occur during the proposed physical activity. Walkers assume the risk for their own safety when traveling the route indicated on this map. If you engage in this walk, you agree that you are voluntarily participating in this activity, assume all risk of injury to yourself, and agree to release WalkSanDiego from any and all liability. The brief description of the route is provided to highlight potential obstacles and the difficulty level.