

City of Houston
Office of New Americans and Immigrant Communities
Department of Neighborhoods

Houston Community Services for Immigrants and Refugees

HILSC Immigration Legal Help

- The Immigration Rights Hotline is a source for referrals to legal services providers and immigration attorneys.
- The Immigrant Rights Hotline also provides timely and accurate information about changing immigration policies and is a place to report discrimination and racial profiling.
- Call 1-833-468-4664 for assistance (Monday - Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm)

Health Care

- The Houston Health Department provides services, including immunizations, birth control, healthy foods for young children and mothers through WIC, testing for certain infectious diseases, health education, basic health services and assistance accessing health care and social services.
- For more information call (832) 393-5169.

Education

- The Houston Independent School District remains committed to educating every student regardless of their immigration status.
- For more information call (713) 556-7121.

Social Services / Food and Shelter

- The United Way 211 Helpline provides non-emergency information such as help finding child care, food stamps, care for an aging parent or a haven from domestic violence. They have a list of social services that you can contact for help.
- Dial 211 for assistance. The hotline is operated 24 hours a day, 7 days a week in many languages.
- Several locations across Houston provide emergency food and shelter.
For a list of resources see back page

Public Safety

- The Houston Police Department is committed to insuring the safety of Houstonians regardless of immigration status.
- For emergencies, call 911 for Fire, Police or Ambulance.

Do you have questions or concerns?

Call 311 for more information about these resources or call the Mayor's Office of New Americans and Immigrant Communities directly during office hours at (832) 393-1010.

Free language Interpretation services are available.
