

Thomas Woodley, President of Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East, affixing boycott notes to a box of Medjool dates in a Costco store in Montreal. 60% of Israeli dates are grown on land in the Jordan valley in the West Bank which has been illegally confiscated from its Palestinian owners. The sticky notes read: “WARNING! DO NOT BUY THIS PRODUCT. Made in Israel: A country violating international law, the 4th Geneva Convention, and fundamental human rights. STAND UP FOR HUMAN RIGHTS. Boycott Israel until it respects international law. <http://bdsmovement.net> #BDS.”
