

Application form

The following questions are not to evaluate your candidacy, but rather to get to know you better.

Name of group (existent or projected): _____

Names of current members:

---

---

University affiliation: _____

University programs of members:

---

---

How did you hear of CJPME? Why are you interested in becoming affiliated with CJPME?

---

---

---

Have you had the opportunity to follow any university courses about the following topics: Middle Eastern politics, Canadian politics, Israel-Palestine, international trade, religion, international relations, international law, etc.? If so, which ones?

---

---

Are you currently involved or have you been involved in other campus groups? If so, which ones?

---

What are your group's values?

---

---

What are your skillsets or areas of interest?

---

---

What projects do you have in mind?

---

---

How long do you expect to keep the campus group running?

---

What are your expectations toward CJPME?

---

Are you planning on applying for your university's recognition (to benefit from their budget for campus groups, etc.)?

---

Would you be willing to sign a Code of Conduct waiver (following annexe)?

---