Welcome to the 32nd Annual TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival

TD is pleased to bring you the 2017 TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival, a widely loved and cherished world-class event celebrating talented and culturally diverse artists from Canada and around the world. In Vancouver, we share a love of music — it is a passion that brings us together and enriches our lives.

Music is powerful. It can transport us to faraway places or trigger a pleasant memory.

Music is also one of many ways that TD connects with customers and communities across the country. And what better way to come together than to celebrate music at several major music festivals from Victoria to Halifax.

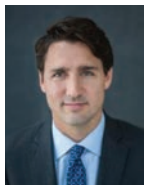

Thousands of fans across British Columbia — including me — look forward to this event every year. I'm excited to take in the music by local and international talent and enjoy the great celebration this festival has to offer.

This incredible event wouldn't be possible without the amazing people involved. Thank you to the hundreds of organizers, volunteers, talented musicians and, of course, the thousands of fans who make the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival a hit every year. As Canada celebrates its 150th birthday since Confederation this year, we are thrilled to have you join us in our spectacular backyard for the love of music.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings to everyone attending the 32nd annual TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival, produced by the Coastal Jazz and Blues Society.

Canada's cultural and creative industries are a vibrant part of our economy and our national identity. The TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival, featuring over 300 concerts and 1800 musicians at over 35 venues, is the largest arts and cultural event in British Columbia and one of the most recognized music showcases in the world. With such a wealth of talent on hand, this year's edition will surely please everyone in attendance.

I would like to commend the Coastal Jazz and Blues Society for their commitment to strengthening the arts community through its education programs, workshops and concert series. I would also like to commend the many volunteers supporting this festival for their dedication to ensuring its success, year after year.

Please accept my best wishes for an enjoyable event.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Justin Trudeau'.

The Rt. Hon. Justin P.J. Trudeau
P.C., M.P. Prime Minister of Canada

A MESSAGE FROM THE BC ARTS COUNCIL

Celebrating jazz, blues and improvised music, the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival continues to be admired as one of the best music showcases anywhere.

Now in its 32nd year, this 10-day musical treasure will feature 1,800 talented artists from British Columbia, across Canada and from around the globe. With more than 300 concerts to enjoy, this festival sparks tremendous growth in the region's creative economy as it draws and delights an estimated 560,000 fans.

With funding made possible by the Province of British Columbia, the BC Arts Council is pleased to be a long-time supporter of the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival.

Thank you to all the performers, organizers, volunteers and supporters that create this cultural highlight for British Columbia each year.

Enjoy!

Merla Beckerman
Chair, BC Arts Council

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

On behalf of the City of Vancouver and my colleagues on City Council, I want to extend my warmest greetings to everyone attending the 2017 TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival.

The Festival began in 1986 as a non-profit community-based arts organization and has blossomed into one of British Columbia's largest arts and cultural events and one of the leading music festivals in the world. The Festival features over 300 concerts and 1800 musicians at over 35 venues. It is a vibrant showcase of every possible musical expression along with our city's great indoor and outdoor venues as a backdrop providing 10 days of incredible entertainment.

I want to thank the Society for its commitment to music education and providing our communities with the gift of music. I encourage everyone to take in at least one of the over 300 concerts that will be held during the festival.

We also want to thank the musicians, sponsors, organizers and volunteers for once again bringing this great event to Vancouver!

Yours truly,

Mayor

Curatorial Statement

VANCOUVER
INTERNATIONAL
JAZZ FESTIVAL

Since the mid '80s Coastal Jazz has been unwavering in its commitment to presenting a comprehensive musical snapshot of what's special and significant about today's live jazz and creative music scene. As the long-time artistic director of this storied organization, I'm very proud of the world-class programming team at today's Coastal Jazz—among the most adroit group of festival programmers anywhere in the world.

Rainbow Robert, Cory Weeds, and Cole Schmidt, along with our North Shore Jazz colleagues Fiona Black and Kevin Mooney, have assembled a wide ranging program that takes us from the popular to the mainstream to the ground breaking leading edges of the scene and beyond; an offering that includes much of what's best on the international, national and local jazz scene.

Among the myriad highlights:

The Festival's first collaboration with the VSO – an evening with Branford Marsalis; Thievery Corporation, with a massive live band; Spotlight on Italy, an exciting new initiative; Made in the UK, back with return visits from the awesome Phronesis and Neil Cowley's Trio plus rising UK trumpet star Laura Jurd; Snarky Puppy's leader Michael League and his new project Bokanté; the 40th anniversary tour of BassDrumBone; drummer/composer John Hollenbeck, in residence with Turning Point Ensemble, and introducing us to his Claudia Quintet. I'm also particularly excited to host Sylvie Courvoisier's Trio in Vancouver.

Straight ahead fans will enjoy legendary heavy-weights and infrequent visitors to Vancouver Kenny Barron, Ron Carter, Cyrus Chestnut, and Buster Williams; the best of Canadian jazz is represented by Anna Webber, Ingrid and Christine Jensen, Nick Fraser Trio (with Kris Davis!), Cat Torren's Human Kind and dozens of other fine bands; world music aficionados will appreciate Seu Jorge, Omar Souleyman, Antibalas and Ziggy Marley.

Over the decades Vancouver has gained an international reputation as a meeting place for creative musicians. This year's program continues that tradition – and takes it to another level with an intriguing and extensive roster of local and international collaborations, many of which will take place at the Ironworks Innovation Series.

From the multi-faceted ticketed program to the much-loved free events at Downtown Jazz and David Lam Park to our solid program of Education and Outreach, we're thrilled to present Vancouver's signature music festival for a 32nd edition.

Looking forward to seeing you at the gigs!

Your Coastal Jazz programming team,

Ken Pickering, Rainbow Robert, Cory Weeds, and Cole Schmidt

The Festival wishes to acknowledge the ancestral, traditional, and unceded territories of the Coast Salish peoples, and in particular the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh peoples upon whose territory we work, live, and play.

CALIFORNIA DREAMING?

Look no further than White Rock — Metro Vancouver's seaside answer to a California beach town. With a unique combination of water, sun and coastal charm, White Rock is one of Canada's most appealing destinations. The relaxed urban town offers a laid back vibe and inviting spirit, and even boasts an average of 20 percent more sunshine than other parts of the region. With a strong sense of community and unmatched economic value, it's time to invest in the future you've been dreaming of — at Miramar Village.

TD HIGH SCHOOL JAZZ INTENSIVE – THE FUTURE OF JAZZ!

A big thanks to our generous sponsors at TD Bank Group! The TD High School Jazz Intensive is now in its 14th year, providing high school students in the Lower Mainland with a unique opportunity to be a part of a free nine-day music residency. Again this year, we welcome composer and guest conductor Tomeka Reid to lead the program.

Up to 21 talented teens are selected from an audition process open to students in Grades 10-12 from over 150 schools across the Lower Mainland. Successful participants receive extensive rehearsal opportunities, bursaries and scholarships, complimentary concerts, workshops with visiting artists, and the chance to perform on the main stage at David Lam Park.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES:

Saturday July 1, 1–4pm: Open Rehearsal at Tom Lee Music Downtown

Sunday July 2, noon–1pm: Feature performance and announcement of scholarship winners, David Lam Park Stage

A special thanks to program co-founder Bob Rebagliati for his continued support.

Coastal Jazz is thrilled to present another Festival filled with musical delights and live moments of unrepeatable genius—the defining feature of jazz.

Coastal Jazz is BC's largest not-for-profit music presenter. With your generous support, throughout the year Coastal Jazz produces the music series at the Winterruption Festival on Granville Island, the Bright Moments Series, over 220 performances at Frankie's Jazz Club, and many other year-round presentations.

Accessible opportunities to hear jazz, blues, Latin, fusion, and world music are the heart of Coastal Jazz. During the Festival, over half of our shows are free. Coastal Jazz also has a long-standing commitment to music education. Each year, we present the TD High School Jazz Intensive Program, the Sounds of Youth Stage, more than 15 weeks of workshops and master classes with local and international artists, and children's music programs.

Without the generosity of your support, Coastal Jazz couldn't provide that level of education and accessible programming. Thank you!

Coastal Jazz wants to bring the joy of jazz to the whole BC community, but we need your help to make this dream a reality. By donating today, you become part of something truly life changing.

Visit coastaljazz.ca/donate or contact Fleur Cooper, Associate Director of Development at fleur@coastaljazz.ca or 604.449.5538 to find out more about how you can help grow a thriving jazz community in BC. Thank you for giving the gift of jazz to so many.

Thank you!

The Coastal Foundation for the Performing Arts was created to expand the activities of the Coastal Jazz and Blues Society.

Its principal objectives are:

- To expand the Society beyond its world-class summer jazz festival with a full suite of year-round presentations and education programs
- To support organizations and artists aligned with the objectives and mission of the Society, including scholarship funds and community organizations with a mandate to further performing arts, composer and artist development, and general professional development
- To create a fund for the future, enabling the Foundation to support opportunities for emerging artists and organizations, and the evolving requirements of the community

- To assist the Society in diversifying its revenue in challenging economic times through ongoing annual support

Match for $1 million

Through the Endowment Incentives Program, The Department of Canadian Heritage offers the Foundation a 100% matching funds opportunity for funds received before November 30, 2017. The Foundation has raised over $450,000 to date, and is now engaged in raising a further $50,000 in private and corporate support, which, when matched, will create a starting endowment of $1 million.

Master luthiers, renowned performers, avid collectors, and aficionados will gather in Vancouver June 23-25 for Canada's largest celebration of the art of guitar making. The 2017 Vancouver International Guitar Festival (VIGF) is a first for the city and a milestone for Canada, which has not hosted an event of this kind since the closure of Montreal's guitar festival five years ago. Celebrated luthiers will exhibit and recording artists will demonstrate some of the finest handmade instruments in the world. The public will be able to see, hear, play, and purchase or commission the instrument of their dreams.

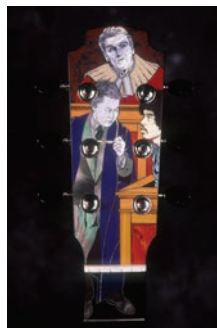

The festival begins June 23 with a Luthier Conference including keynotes, roundtable sessions and presentation of the VIGF Industry Award to Jean Larrivée, father of Canadian luthiery.

THE GUITAR EXHIBITION

The two-day Guitar Exhibition, June 24-25, is open to the public, showcasing the work of more than 80 master luthiers from Canada, the United States, Europe, Asia and Australia. Electrics, acoustics, ukuleles and basses will be on display, from avant-garde to traditional. Exhibitors will be present at their booths to provide information and allow visitors to demo their creations. Specialty vendors will be on site with tone wood and custom guitar-building parts.

Headstock of a Grit Laskin acoustic guitar, a graphic inlay he calls "Acoustic Versus Electric, The Case Being Argued in Court."

MASTER CLASSES

Visitors to the two-day exhibition who are interested in more personal contact, instruction and inspiration may sign up for master classes taught by top luthiers, guitarists and technical innovators. The lineup includes internationally renowned Canadian luthier William "Grit" Laskin, legendary guitar maker Jean Larrivée and award-winning guitarist Don Alder. Topics range from luthier tips, new technology, maintenance and repair, to advanced performance styles and social media marketing. See website below for master class ticketing information.

Superstar guitarist Don Alder offers a June 24 master class called The Tonal Toolkit.

LIVE PERFORMANCES

Free performances take place every half-hour throughout the two-day exhibition, with world-class Vancouver artists demonstrating the instruments on display. Guitarists include Don Alder, Dave Martone, Shaun Verreault, Paul Pigat and Itamar Erez, with styles ranging from rock, blues, jazz and bluegrass to fingerstyle, classical and flamenco.

All events take place at the Chinese Cultural Centre Event Hall, 50 E. Pender Street, Vancouver

Achim Kaufmann's Grünen

June 24 • Performance Works @ 2:30pm • Free

"These three artists do not play music, they are music."—Free Jazz Blog

Led by the Albert Mangelsdorff Award-winning pianist Achim Kaufmann (Michael Moore, Jim Black), this Berlin-based trio mixes subversive spontaneous improv, Classical underpinnings and surreal jazz with intricate rhythms and unpredictable structures. With Robert Landfermann bass, Christian Lillinger drums.

Thanks to Berlin Senate Cultural Affairs Department and Goethe-Institut.

Angell/Brown/Capurso/ Kallerdahl

June 29 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Afternoon Sessions @ 5pm • Free

Leading Swedish bassist Josef Kallerdahl has worked with Nils Berg, MusicMusicMusic, and Lina Nyberg. Swedish-born Montrealeur and Thus Owls vocalist Erika Angell moves fluidly between free improvisation, folk, and alternative pop. The two have worked as a duo since 2001, releasing four albums and touring extensively. JUNO Award-winning Vancouver drummer Ben Brown (Pugs & Crows) and Italian vocalist/sound artist Marialuca Capurso met two years ago in Berlin where they worked intensively for a month creating a moving language between performance and instant composition.

Anna Webber's Simple Trio

June 23 • Performance Works @ 2:30pm • Free

BC-born, Brooklyn-based composer/saxophonist/flutist Anna Webber's music is "bracing, argumentative, and engineered to show the range of the group members: intense collective improvisation; rapid, chromatic steeplechases; research into long tones and textures" (New York Times). With avant-garde pianist Matt Mitchell (Tim Berne) and the always inventive and intelligent John Hollenbeck (Claudia Quintet) drums.

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts.

Antibalas (with The Mattson 2)

June 23 • The Vogue Theatre @ 8pm • $63 All In

Conceived in Mexico City and born in a Brooklyn warehouse in 1997, Antibalas is rooted in Afrobeat, but thoroughly flexible. Their live shows are the stuff of legend—hot, sweaty, dance marathons set to a tight, infectious groove. Lead singer Amayo, a native of Lagos, Nigeria and a senior Kung

Fu master, guides the band through cathartic workouts of call and response, dynamic instrumentals and eruptive solos. Antibalas has collaborated with artists from Angélique Kidjo to Medeski Martin & Wood to Public Enemy, and served as the house band at Carnegie Hall. They're on the road in support of their newly released album, their first since 2012's Antibalas. Don't miss the dance party of the year!

Antonio Ciacca Quintet plays The Italian-American Songbook

June 23 & 24 • Frankie's Jazz Club @ 8pm • $20 plus tax

Pianist/composer Antonio Ciacca carries the torch of the great Italian-American jazz tradition that began in 1917 when the first jazz record was cut in New Orleans by Nick LaRocca and the Original Dixie 'Jass' Band. Performing music from their 2016 Cellar Live release, Volare, The Italian American Songbook, the group explores the music of Henry Mancini, Harry Warren (aka Salvatore Guaragna), and Frankie Laine plus Ciacca originals written for Italian jazz masters like Scott LaFaro and Joe Lovano. The sublime quintet features fellow Italian talent Ben Bennack III trumpet/vocals, Cory Weeds tenor saxophone, Ken Lister bass, and Kelby MacNayr drums.

Ariel Pocock Trio

June 25 Downtown Jazz – Robson Stage @ 1:30pm • Free

North Carolina-based Ariel Pocock's "true facility for sinewy jazz piano and breezy, achingly plainspoken vocal chops" (Seattle Times) draws on Cuban and Brazilian folk music, the Great American Songbook, modern jazz composers Chick Corea and Brad Mehldau, and songwriters like Joni Mitchell and Paul Simon. With John Lee bass and Norbert Botos drums.

Ayelet Rose Gottlieb's Who Has Seen The Wind?

July 1 • Roundhouse – Performance Centre @ 1:30pm
$10 All In @ door only, or RHPC Innovation Weekend Pass
$32 All In

Who Has Seen The Wind? brings Vancouver-based, Israeli-born New York vocalist Ayelet Rose Gottlieb together with three renowned and remarkable clarinetists/composers/improvisers. Gottlieb's exploratory work mixes jazz, Middle-Eastern, and Jewish music with cutting-edge improv and intricate composition. "An inveterate genre-croser" (Time Out Chicago) Seattle's James Falzone works at the intersection of jazz, classical and world music traditions, while Brooklyn-based Michael Winograd blends art-song with traditional Klezmer. Vancouver's François Houle is a prolific, diverse musician who incorporates electronics and astonishing extended techniques in his playing.

"If it can be done in the jazz field, Brad Turner has pretty much done it" —Earshot.

Known for his work with Metalwood, Joe Lovano, John Scofield, and Peggy Lee, prolific Renaissance man and multiple JUNO Award-winning trumpeter/pianist/drummer Brad Turner leads one of Canada's most potent combos. Turner's plaintive, compelling tone, formidable improvisational skills, and far-ranging compositions are taken to new and thrilling places by acclaimed Vancouver players Bruno Hubert piano, André Lachance bass, Dylan van der Schyff drums. **🇨🇦

An Evening with Branford Marsalis and the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra

June 28 • Orpheum Theatre @ 8pm • $61–86 All In

NEA Jazz Master, renowned GRAMMY Award-winning saxophonist Branford Marsalis is one of the most revered instrumentalists of his time. Leader of one of the finest jazz quartets today, and a frequent soloist with classical ensembles, Branford has become increasingly sought-after as a featured soloist with such acclaimed orchestras as the Chicago, Detroit, Düsseldorf, and North Carolina Symphonies and the Boston Pops, with a growing repertoire that includes compositions by Debussy, Glazunov, Mahler, Milhaud, and Vaughan Williams along with select jazz pieces. Making his first appearance with the New York Philharmonic in 2010, Marsalis demonstrated his versatility and prowess, bringing "a gracious poise and supple tone... and an insouciant swagger" (New York Times) to the repertoire. Whatever the musical context, Branford Marsalis embodies a commitment to musical excellence. Branford performs the first half with Vancouver Symphony Orchestra, and is then joined by his long-time quartet pianist Joey Calderazzo.

Buckman Coe (with Ziggy Marley)

June 26 • Vogue Theatre @ 8pm • $71/76 All In

Buckman Coe's gorgeous fusion of reggae, soul, and world music seeks to uplift while forwarding messages of global unity and social justice. ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Gerry Hemingway/Tony Wilson/ John Gross

July 2 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Late Night @ Midnight • $21 All In or 3 Event Bundle $46 All In

A meeting of three of North America's most captivating musicians. A longtime Anthony Braxton collaborator, American drummer Gerry Hemingway has been on the leading edge of creative music since the early '70s, working with John Butcher, Ellery Eskelin, and more. A master of saxophone multiphonics (he literally wrote the book on it!), former Portlander/new Vancouverite John Gross has worked with Alan Jones, Tony Malaby, and Lionel Hampton. Tony Wilson is one of the most important figures in Canadian jazz. The remarkably inventive guitarist mixes compositional acumen and technical virtuosity with fiery improvisational abandon, all in the service of the higher power of expressiveness. **🇨🇦

July 2 • Roundhouse-Studio (Gerry Hemingway/Mark Helias Workshop) @ 4:30pm • Free

Gordon Grdina Septet featuring Jon Irabagon

June 30 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Late Night @ Midnight • $21 All In or 3 Event Bundle $46 All In

With tenor saxophonist Jon Irabagon (Dave Douglas, Mary Halvorson) as catalyst guitarist/oud player Gordon Grdina fuses two of his stellar—and very distinct—small groups, The Gordon Grdina Trio and East Van Strings, to channel a bold, large-scale composition that features each incredible musician's voice while also acting as a springboard for group improvisation. The new work—Resist—celebrates all who combat fear and hatred through their art, activism, and everyday conversations. Featuring Kenton Loewen drums, Tommy Babin bass, Peggy Lee cello, Eyvind Kang (Bill Frisell) viola, and Jesse Zubot (Tanya Tagaq) violin, and DownBeat Rising Star Jon Irabagon on saxophones. **🇨🇦

Greasy G and The Poole Party featuring JAKITO!

July 2 • Roundhouse – Exhibition Hall @ 3pm & 4:10pm • Free

Driving Latin, swing, and Afrobeat grooves + greasy Hammond organ = good times! The spontaneously combustible trio of Chris Gestrin keyboards, Joe Poole drums, and Jack Duncan congas, percussion delivers the funky goods. Recommended for anyone who loves some "Green Onions" while "On the Corner"! **🇨🇦

Gypsophilia

June 30 • Performance Works @ 9pm • $25 All In

"Incredible. If you ever see their name you must go and see them – it's a visual delight as well." –BBC Radio 2
By turns raucous and sweet, nostalgic and modern, genre-bending Halifax sextet Gypsophilia's frenzied swing and rousing sing-alongs are chock-full of humour, showmanship, and great chops! Born of a shared love of Django Reinhardt, the four-time East Coast Music Award winners are what Exclaim! calls "the perfect mix of cerebral and primal." Featuring the triple-guitar threat of Alec Frith, Nick Wilkinson, and Ross Burns; Matt Myer trumpet/keyboards; Adam Fine bass; and Gina Burgess violin. **🇨🇦

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts.

Half Waif (with Land of Talk)

June 26 • Imperial @ 9pm • $25 All In

Nandi Rose Plunkett writes, records, and performs under the name Half Waif. Her deeply personal and engaging music reflects her lifelong endeavour to reconcile her diverse influences, including Joni Mitchell and Tori Amos, Celtic music, Indian bhajans, and the classical works of Messiaen and Debussy. This diversity results in a beautifully layered collage of electronic soundscapes, Celtic melodies, and 19th-century art music.

Haram with special guest Fredrik Ljungkvist

July 2 • Roundhouse – David Lam Park Stage @ 5:15pm • Free

A phenomenal 10-piece culture-mashing juggernaut led by JUNO Award winner Gordon Grdina (Dan Mangan, Mark Helias) on Iraqi oud, Haram pays homage to traditional Arabic music while mixing elements of noise, electronic soundscape, and western free improv into their explosively self-expressive sound. Featuring special guest, acclaimed Swedish saxophonist Fredrik Ljungkvist (Atomic, FIRE! Orchestra), Haram pushes fearlessly towards the future. **🇨🇦
Songlines Recording Artists—Celebrating 25 years!

Henneman/Miller/Younger/ Laubrock/Brooks

June 26 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Afternoon Sessions @ 5pm • Free

Violist Ig Henneman (Ab Baars, Misha Mengelberg) has been at the forefront of the fertile Dutch improv scene since the mid-1980s, while Downbeat Rising Star soprano saxophonist Ingrid Laubrock works with leading New York players Craig Taborn, Mary Halvorson, and Tyshawn Sorey. They're joined by stalwart Vancouver creators Lisa Cay Miller (NOW Orchestra) piano, guitarist Jeff Younger (The Unsupervised), and Skye Brooks (Inhabitants) drums. **🇨🇦

Horsepowar

July 2 • Roundhouse – David Lam Park Stage @ 7pm • Free

One of Vancouver's most internationally buzzed-about rappers, Horsepowar "is what you get when you allow an opinionated slam poet with a (dare we say, unhealthy) obsession with Nineties Bollywood to take the microphone" (GQ). With banging Bhangra and hip hop beats, "biting flows and Desi girl pride" (Fader), Horsepowar has arrived! 🇨🇦

Hyenas DJs (with Omar Souleyman)

June 25 • Imperial @ 9pm • $42 All In

A multi-lingual, multi-genre, multi-faceted DJ set from the freewheelin' Hyenas, Tome Jozic and Luka Rogers, who, when not generating their thrilling sound-mash, moonlight in Vancouver scenesters Basketball. Global rhythms, electronic noise, trance rock, and massive bass fills the dance floor with genre-bending beats. 🇨🇦

Hyper + Trio featuring François Houle

July 1 • Granville Island – Performance Works @ 3:45pm Free

Stellar Italian players Nicola Fazzini saxophone and Alessandro Fedrigo bass/effects bring a vast creative vocabulary full of fluid melodic lines, driving rhythms, and fire to this inter-continental collaboration. "Never less than excellent" (Exclaim!), clarinetist François Houle possesses an astonishing range of extended techniques and stratospheric melodicism, while Skye Brooks is one of Vancouver's most inventive and propulsive drummers. 🇨🇦

Thanks to Consulate General of Italy-Vancouver, Italian Cultural Institute Toronto, Novara Festival (Italy)

Ingrid and Christine Jensen with Ben Monder: Infinitude

June 26 • Performance Works @ 9pm • $35 All In

Led by Canadian jazz giants Ingrid Jensen trumpet/effects and Christine Jensen saxophone, Infinitude has the "rare distinction of being able to simultaneously combine tranquility with rhythmic vibrancy, coalescing in a near hypnotic fusion of tone and colour. A rare delight" (AllAboutJazz). Few talents could reckon with the concept of boundless possibility at the centre of their music, but in a quintet setting featuring renowned guitarist Ben Monder (Paul Motian, Theo Bleckmann), and the foundational artistry of Fraser Hollins bass and Jon Wikan drums, the Jensens find a captivating conversational rapport full of texture, daring and grace. 🇨🇦

June 26 • Tom Lee Music Hall (Ben Monder Workshop) 1pm • Free

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts.

Invisible Taste featuring Jesse and Josh Zubot

June 28 • Innovation Series – The China Cloud Late Night @ 11pm • $15 at door only Invisible Taste spotlights the vast sonic range of Vancouver's most cosmically inclined rhythm section. Using electronics, Califone phonographs, a vast array of hand percussion tools and toys—and of course drums and bass—Daniel Gaudier (Fond of Tigers, Sandro Perri) and Colin Cowan (Elastic Stars, Dálava) embark on inter-dimensional sonic journeys. For this special concert, they're joined by two of their favourite violinists—Jesse Zubot (Tanya Tagaq) and his brother Josh Zubot, a leading figure in Montreal's creative music scene for the past decade. 🇨🇦

Jacob Collier

June 27 • Performance Works @ 9pm • $45 All In

"This is serious music that puts a massive grin on your face—and Collier should rightly have the world at his feet in years to come."—JazzWise

Quincy Jones, Herbie Hancock, and k.d. lang are big fans of young phenom Jacob Collier, and once you hear his virtuosic, multi-layered sound, you'll be hooked too! An omnivorous sponge for inspiration, the multiple GRAMMY-nominated Londoner combines elements of jazz, funk, folk, classical, Brazilian music, gospel, and soul (to name a few). "Jazz's new prodigy" (London Jazz News), Jacob's stunning live show is a one-man-band tour de force, blending live loops, video projections, and unbelievable chops!

Jane Bunnett and Maqueque

July 1 • Roundhouse - David Lam Park Stage @ 3:30pm • Free

Known for her courageous, ever-evolving artistry and adventurous improvisation, award-winning Canadian soprano saxophonist/flutist Jane Bunnett (Paul Bley, Don Thompson, Molly Johnson) brings together an all-female band of Cuban all-stars (featuring two percussionists, drums, piano, guitar and bass) for a sublime synthesis of modern jazz with a Cuban soul. 🇨🇦

Thanks to Ontario Arts Council.

ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Jared Burrows Sextet

July 1 • Granville Island – Railspur District Stage
@ 12:30pm • Free

Jared Burrows' incandescent, spiritual guitar explorations take modern jazz to dizzying heights of beauty while laying down some seriously fiery grooves! His top-shelf sextet features jazz stalwarts Dave Robbins (Denzel Sinclair) drums, Brent Gubbels bass, Steve Kaldestad saxophones, Dennis Esson trombone, and Chris Davis trumpet. **🇨🇦

Jenn Bojm & Khingfisher (with Tommy Emmanuel)

June 25 • The Vogue Theatre @ 8pm • $55/60 All In

The delicate, hushed duo of Jenn Bojm & Khingfisher was recently named one of Vancouver's Best Bands by The Georgia Straight. The publication lauded the "quivering intensity and beauty" of the pair's collection of haunting, stripped-bare folk covers from the likes of Emmylou Harris, Bob Dylan, and Richard Farina. **🇨🇦

Jen Hodge All Stars

July 1 • Granville Island – Ron Basford Park Stage @ Noon • Free

Vancouver bassist Jen Hodge leads this pack of talented young musicians with a passion for playing raucous, sassy jazz that's reminiscent of the prohibition era. Think '20s, '30s, Jelly Roll Morton, Bix Beiderbecke, Bob Wills, speakeasies, roadhouses, underground parties... you get the idea. Guaranteed to be great fun! **🇨🇦

Jennifer Scott

July 2 • Civic Plaza @ 1pm • Free

"We're talking about gorgeous tone and absolutely killer technique."—The Province
JUNO and Jesse-nominated Scott regularly performs to festival audiences and sold-out houses, earning accolades for her velvety voice and daring song selection. She also worked with luminaries including Tommy Banks, Don Thompson, and Kenny Wheeler. **🇨🇦

Jim Campilongo & The Brooklynites

June 23 • West Vancouver Memorial Library @ 7:30pm • Free
June 25 • Downtown Jazz – Georgia Stage @ 2:15pm • Free

Billboard Magazine has called Jim Campilongo "an American treasure" and with The Brooklynites, Campilongo showcases his inimitable Telecaster guitar virtuosity and songwriting accompanied by a fiery ensemble of frequent NYC collaborators, including Luca Benedetti electric guitar, Chris Morrissey electric bass, and Russ Meissner drums.

Joel Miller with Sienna Dahlen: Dream Cassette

June 24 • Downtown Jazz – Robson Stage @ 6:45pm • Free

JUNO Award-winning Montreal saxophonist/vocalist Joel Miller's "passionate and creative, melodic yet exploratory" (Downbeat) Dream Cassette delves into pop music of the 1980s, a time when the then New Brunswick resident was mostly concerned with skateboards and Walkmans. With vocalist Sienna Dahlen, the six-piece Dream Cassette is "positively engaging" (New York City Jazz Record). **🇨🇦

John Boutté

June 30 • The BlueShore at Cap @ 8pm • $30/$32 plus sc

Walk down the tree-lined streets of the Faubourg Marigny neighborhood in New Orleans on a hot sultry night and chances are good you'll hear John Boutté's voice floating out of one of the area's nightspots. Maybe it'll be a soulful version of Sam Cooke's "A Change Is Gonna Come", Annie Lennox's "Why", or one of the bayou-blended tunes co-authored with his Marigny pal Paul Sanchez. No matter the song, it will stop you in your tracks, for Boutté—who was born into a large Creole family that goes back seven generations in Louisiana—lives and breathes the heart and soul of New Orleans.

Kandace Springs

June 25 • Pyatt Hall @ 7:30pm & 9:30pm • $40 All In Per Show

A truly engaging talent like Blue Note artist Kandace Springs is timeless and undeniable. As The Guardian said in a four-star review, "she has a rare ability that can't be taught—to sound like an old soul, just doing what comes naturally." The Nashville-based singer/songwriter/pianist makes warm and sophisticated soul, pop, and jazz with a stunning voice that pop legend Prince said "could melt snow." Taking inspiration from the likes of Nina Simone, Billie Holiday, and Roberta Flack, the organic, intimate, and deeply soulful sound of this "suave songstress" (Wall Street Journal) is remarkably fresh and singularly hers. With Dillon Treacy drums, Jesse Bielenberg bass.

Thanks to the Italian Cultural Centre, Vancouver.

Kenny Barron (a night of solo piano)

June 25 • Kay Meek Centre @ 7:30pm • $40 All In

Called “the most lyrical piano player of our time” by Jazz Weekly, Kenny Barron cut his teeth in the 1960s with Dizzy Gillespie’s band, and went on to work with Yusef Lateef, Stan Getz, Charlie Haden, John Scofield, and other masters of jazz. The nine-time GRAMMY nominee and American Jazz Hall of Fame member is not just an astute interpreter of works by Monk, Ellington, Charlie Parker, and more: Barron’s excellent original compositions showcase his wide-ranging ideas as much as his elegant, virtuosic playing. With “impeccable technique and lyrical taste, [Barron] is an influential master of post-bop jazz” (All Music).

Kurt Rosenwinkel’s Caiqi

June 29 • Performance Works @ 9pm • $45 All In

“Kurt Rosenwinkel’s music is the sound of the future—just like bebop once was.”—Chicago Tribune

“One of modern jazz’s most versatile string men” (The Observer), guitarist/vocalist Kurt Rosenwinkel has collaborated with Brad Mehldau, Brian Blade, and Eric Clapton, who referred to Kurt as “a genius.” His latest work, Caiqi, is “a staggeringly good album of heart-warming, memorable tunes” (All About Jazz) that intermingle Brazilian pop, reflective singer-songwriter balladeering, and undercurrents of sun-kissed ‘60s psychedelia. Thought-provoking lyrics, unconventional multilayered melodies, and incandescent soloing with Olivia Trummer keys/voice, Frederico Heliodoro bass/voice, Bill Campbell drums, Pedro Martins guitar/keys/voice, Antonio Loureiro percussion/voice.

Laura Jurd Dinosaur

July 1 • Roundhouse – Performance Centre @ 3:15pm
$10 All In at door only or $32 RHPC Pass All In

"Imagine the impressionistic electric-jazz moodiness and glistening keyboard textures of Miles Davis's In A Silent Way seamlessly wrapped around Celtic folk melodies, Django Batesian idiom-swaps, and American, Scottish and north African drumming" (The Guardian) and you'll begin to get an idea of the heady range of one of the world's most exciting new jazz combos. Led by UK trumpeter/composer Laura Jurd, this phenomenal group has made a huge splash with their aptly titled Together, As One, which AllAboutJazz calls "one of the best debut albums in years." With Elliot Galvin keys, Conor Chaplin bass, and Corrie Dick drums. Made in the UK. Thanks to PRS for MUSIC Foundation.

Leo Bae Quintet

June 25 • Granville Island – Public Market Stage @ Noon • Free

Currently calling Oregon home, Vancouver pianist/composer Leo Bae's contemplative take on layered, melodic jazz stirs together jazz influences from Bill Evans and Kenny Wheeler to the artful pop of Radiohead and The Beatles. His intuitive quintet features Lyle Hopkins bass, Miles Wong drums, Josh Hettwer tenor saxophone/clarinet, and Ben Frost trumpet/flugelhorn. **🇨🇦

Les Filles de Illighadad

June 24 • Downtown Jazz – Georgia Stage @ 2:15pm • Free

Sublime sounds from rural Niger. Guitarist Fatou Seidi Ghali and vocalist Alamnou Akrouni lead this ensemble (named after their Sahara-bordering village) through two very different sides of Tuareg music: dreamy ishumar acoustic guitar melodicism, and the hypnotic, polyphonic rhythms of the tende drum that inspires it.

LSD Trio

June 25 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Late Night @ midnight • $21 All In or 3 Event Bundle $46 All In

"A fluid, mutually supportive triumvirate of talented young musicians," this striking, hard swinging Swedish group "is a pleasure from start to finish" (AllAboutJazz). With an omnivorous musical appetite that takes in the music of

Duke Ellington, Billy Strayhorn, and Sonny Rollins, as well as influences from spirituals, French chanson, and hymns, LSD expertly plays with a multitude of dichotomies: it's soft and beautiful, yet ugly and raw; it's catchy and explosive, yet sincere and soulful. This symbiotic, three-headed beast features Fredrik Lindborg tenor & baritone saxophones/bass clarinet, Martin Sjöstedt (Joe Lovano, Peter Erskine) bass, and Daniel Fredriksson drums.

Thanks to Swedish Arts Council.

Luc Ex/Loewen/MacQuarrie/Zubot

June 27 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Afternoon Sessions @ 5pm • Free

Known for his work in the peerless Dutch experimental band The Ex, bassist Luc Ex has collaborated with Tom Cora, Christian Fennesz, and Tortoise. One of Vancouver's most underrated guitarists, Chad MacQuarrie moves from angular post-punk to transcendent beauty. Multifaceted drummer Kenton Loewen (Peregrine Falls, The Cracking) cut his teeth in free jazz, indie-folk, and the DIY punk of Submission Hold. A staple in Montreal's experimental scene, violinist Josh Zubot's idiosyncratic talents grace The Land of Kush and Ratchet Orchestra. **🇨🇦

Malcolm Aiken & New Futures

July 2 • Roundhouse – David Lam Park Stage @ 1:45pm • Free

Dub-soaked jazz with downtempo grooves, ambient textures, and vintage synths set the perfect mood for trumpeter Malcolm Aiken's velvet tone. In New Futures, world, electronic, and pop swirl together in a West Coast/Nordic nu-jazz hybrid sound that crosses electric-era Miles Davis with modern beats inspired by J Dilla and Flying Lotus. **🇨🇦

Mario Rom's Interzone

June 24 • Downtown Jazz – Georgia Stage @ 3:45pm • Free

"No matter which style they are playing, these three musicians always play as if their lives were at stake!" – Jazzthing. The Austrian trio of trumpeter Mario Rom, bassist Lukas Kranzelbinder, and drummer Herbert Pirker move from straight-ahead bop to funky grooves and avant-garde abstraction with an entrancingly joyful energy. Thanks to Austria Cultural Forum and the Austrian Embassy, Ottawa.

The Mattson 2 (with Antibalas)

June 23 • The Vogue Theatre @ 8pm • $63 All In

This identical twin guitar and drums duo is truly a marvel of jazz-rock orchestration and arrangement. They channel the gorgeously hypnotic gods of surf, sun, and neon-punk-jazz of our modern universe, evoking evolved realms of experimentalism, rhythm, and story. They have toured relentlessly and collaborated with Toro Y Moi, and BadBadNotGood.

MENDHAM featuring the music of Josh Zubot

July 2 • Roundhouse – Performance Centre @ 1:30pm
$10 All In @ door or RHPC Weekend Pass $32 All In MENDHAM is a high-energy avant-jazz group led by violinist Joshua Zubot (Sam Shalabi, Lori Freedman). Melding swing, new music, free improv, speed metal, and noise, the Montreal group is known for its propulsive and beautifully ecstatic mayhem. MENDHAM spontaneously feed off of one another, grabbing and throwing out ideas at an alarming rate. Jason Sharp's raging baritone sax crashes into Isaiah Ceccarelli's machine gun drumming and bursts the music wide open. Nicolas Caloia's bass balances the group while Joshua Zubot's hyperactive violin keeps the music teetering on the thrilling edge. **🇨🇦

An Evening With Scott Bradlee's Postmodern Jukebox

June 30 • Orpheum Theatre @ 8pm • $54-$70 All In

Founded by pianist/arranger Scott Bradlee in 2009, SBPJ reimagines contemporary pop, rock, and R&B hits in the style of various yesteryears, from swing to doo-wop, ragtime to Motown—or as Bradlee puts it, "pop music in a time machine." On the current release, The Essentials, material ranges from the '80s hard rock of Guns N' Roses to hits as recent as Justin Bieber's plea "Sorry". The album includes breathtaking vocals, raucous horn solos, infectious dance rhythms, and nostalgic melodies. It's all rendered by a rotating cast of musicians and singers in fashions that date back to a time when Axl, Slash, and Bieber's parents had yet to be born. The media has taken notice — Entertainment Weekly wrote, the "group is known for retro-frying modern hits songs into viral success." So imagine "We Can't Stop" by Miley Cyrus as 1950s doo-wop, Guns N' Roses' "Sweet Child O' Mine" as gutbucket Bourbon Street blues, and the schmaltzy "My Heart Will Go On" as Jackie Wilson-style R&B. Welcome to the world of Postmodern Jukebox.

Quatuor André Lachance

July 1 • Roundhouse • David Lam Park Stage @ 1:45pm

Re-Bop! A Tribute to Lambert, Hendricks, and Ross

June 25 • Frankie's Jazz Club @ 8pm • $15 plus tax

Three of Canada's most dynamic jazz singers—Kate Hammett-Vaughan, Carman J. Price, and Matthew Smith—pay tribute to the greatest vocal trio in the history of jazz. Beginning in 1957, Lambert, Hendricks and Ross recorded a slew of classic LPs featuring the music of Count Basie, Duke Ellington and more. The Downbeat Readers Poll's Best Vocal Group from 1959 to 1963 has never been surpassed. You can capture some of the magic as Matt, Carman, and Kate take on the group's classics with stellar backing from Chris Gestrin piano, Jodi Proznick bass, and Craig Scott drums. 🇨🇦

Roy Forbes

June 25 • Presentation House Theatre @ 8pm • $25/$23 plus sc

Dawson Creek-born Roy Forbes' musical career took flight in early 1970s Vancouver. As "Bim" (his childhood nickname) Forbes opened for Supertramp, Santana, and Jeff Beck, garnering the spotlight for his emotive, quivering voice. The single "Can't Catch Me" launched him as a headliner and folk star. Performing as Roy Forbes since 1987, he's continued to record, headline folk festivals, and tour extensively, despite being diagnosed legally blind two years ago. Forbes has also penned songs recorded by Sylvia Tyson, Garnet Rogers, and Valdy, and hosted popular radio programs—CBC's Snap Crackle Pop and the ongoing Roy's Record Room on CKUA. com. 🇨🇦

Scott Hamilton Trio featuring Rossano Sportiello & J.J. Shukur

July 2 • Pyatt Hall @ 7:30pm & 9:30pm • $40 All In Per Show

With a fat, buttery sound reminiscent of Ben Webster and Don Byas, tenor saxophone giant Scott Hamilton was at the forefront of a new generation of young artists that helped revitalize the sophisticated sound of small-group swing, ushering in the “young lion” jazz renaissance of the mid-1970s. Around that same time, award-winning Italian jazz pianist Rossano Sportiello was busy being born! Touted as “the best stride piano player” mentor Barry Harris has ever heard, echoes of Ralph Sutton, Dave McKenna, and Bill Evans can be heard in Sportiello’s rich and assured playing. With J.J. Shukur bass. This special concert will be recorded for a release on the Cellar Live imprint.

Seu Jorge presents The Life Aquatic—A Tribute to David Bowie

June 22 - Orpheum Theatre @ 8pm • $59-$76 All In North American audiences may know Brazilian singer/songwriter/guitarist Seu Jorge best for his film roles. He appeared in City of God, a film that put an international spotlight on favela life, poverty, and violence, and The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou, the Wes Anderson film that featured Jorge as a guitar-playing member of a sea expedition crew. He appeared between narrative sequences, playing intimate, samba-tinged versions of David Bowie songs. Today, Seu Jorge is both an international film star and singing sensation. His warm, husky baritone is instantly recognizable but nonetheless flexible enough for samba, reggae, pop, electronic, jazz, and other influences. Concerts can turn into joyous sing-along celebrations, as was the case during his last Festival appearance. Join us as we proudly launch the 2017 Festival with Seu Jorge in a marvellous tribute to the late, great David Bowie.

Sharon Minemoto Quartet

July 1 • Granville Island – Performance Works @ 2pm • Free

Vancouver-based keyboardist/melodica player Sharon Minemoto is a swinging and sensitive performer with a highly melodic style. She is also the composer of some very hip, wide-ranging original music that runs the gamut from introspective to funky. Her sublime, tasteful quartet features Jon Bentley saxophone, Adam Thomas bass, and Bernie Arai drums. 🇨🇦

Shobaleader One (with V. Vecker)June 28 • Imperial @ 9pm • $39 All In Squarepusher's Tom Jenkinson can't seem to sit still. Following 2010's recording titled Squarepusher Presents Shobaleader One, he's turned the project into a genuine band, with Jenkinson on bass, plus three musicians going by the names Strobe Nazard, Company Laser, and Arg Nution, taking on keyboards, drums, and guitar, respectively. This "space-pop" quartet sets about reworking Squarepusher standards through hyperspeed jazz-funk, their identities concealed by masks in this "music that robots might put on when they're feeling sexy" (Exclaim!).

SICK BOSSJune 27 • Innovation Series – The China Cloud Late Night @ 11pm • $15 at door only

"SICK BOSS consistently delves deep beyond musical boundaries, blurring borders between genres, and scenes."

—Discorder Magazine

Led by JUNO Award-winning Pugs and Crows guitarist Cole Schmidt, SICK BOSS draws influence from creative improvisation, folk, and Jimi Hendrix. Schmidt's sweeping, beautiful, and cerebral originals are taken to new and unexpected places by a cherry-picked cast of Vancouver all-stars, all of whom are composers and leaders in their own right. With Peggy Lee cello, JP Carter trumpet, James Meger bass, Dan Gaucher drums, and Jeremy Page clarinet. **🇨🇦

Simon Millerd QuintetJuly 1 • Granville Island • Performance Works @ 7:30pm • Free

This exciting young jazz quintet led by CBC Galaxy Rising Star Award-winning Montreal trumpeter Simon Millerd hits the West Coast for the release of their debut album of forward-thinking and beautifully textured modern jazz. With Mike Bjella tenor sax, Ben Dwyer bass, Kai Basanta drums, Pablo Held piano. **🇨🇦

Songlines Recording Artist — Celebrating 25 years!

Sonny LandrethJune 29 • The BlueShore at Cap @ 8pm • $32/$30 plus sc

Eric Clapton has called Sonny Landreth one of the most advanced—and underappreciated—guitarists in the world. Landreth spent his formative years in 1950s Louisiana during the golden era of zydeco, blues, jazz, and roots, and was later mentored by zydeco legend Clifton Chenier. His mesmerizing slide guitar technique—changing keys, rhythms and musical styles in a flash—has earned him the moniker "King of the Slydeco." Landreth's solo albums span (and often blur) blues, zydeco, folk, country, and jazz, and he's played with John Hiatt, John Mayall, and Jimmy Buffett's Coral Reefer Band among others. With Dave Ranson bass and Brian Brignac drums.

SoulstreamJune 25 • Lynn Valley Village @ 1pm • Free

With three JUNOs, one GRAMMY, and five West Coast Musician of the Year nominations among them, this collective dubbed "Vancouver's hottest house band" by The Province is a local marvel. Members have performed with artists including k.d. lang, INXS, and Wynton Marsalis. As Soulstream, they come together to perform catchy covers in "incredibly creative" (Vancouver Sun) fashion. **🇨🇦

Star System plays the Music of Sun RaJune 25 • Downtown Jazz—Georgia Stage @ 12:30pm • Free

Drawing on the vast and diverse catalogue of one of music's most prolific, pioneering, and confounding figures, Star System goes from in the pocket swing to controlled cosmic chaos and intergalactic improvisation. From classic charts to uncharted territories, the 12-piece Star System is "stunning to behold" (Exclaim!). **🇨🇦

ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Steelin' in the Years

June 27 • The BlueShore at Cap @ 8pm • $25/$23 plus sc

When this veritable who's who of the Vancouver recording scene discovered they had a common passion for the music of Steely Dan, they formed the ultimate tribute band nailing classics including "Rikki Don't Lose that Number", "Reelin' in the Years", "Peg", and other beloved and lesser-known tracks to the delight of club and festival audiences around the province. Featuring Billy Mendoza and Debbie Low vocals/percussion, Bill "Otto" Runge alto sax, Jason De Couto key-board, Andreas Schuld guitar, Phil Robertson drums, Dave Say tenor sax, Geeta Das trumpet, Kerry Galloway bass, and Talia Butler Gray vocals/percussion. **🇨🇦

Sylvain Darriourcq - In Love With

July 1 • Roundhouse - Performance Centre @ 5pm
$10 All In @ door only or $32 RHPC Innovation Weekend Pass All In

"All three search the timbral qualities of their instruments, patiently and organically sketching a poetic yet chaotic texture... Impressive and inspiring" —AllAboutJazz

French drummer Sylvain Darriourcq (Émile Parisien) leads this vital and startlingly creative trio through abstracted, brain-meltingly virtuosic compositions that come off like mashups of Webern, Satie, Mr. Bungle, and beautifully textured chamber jazz. Alternating between plucking and bowing, cellist Valentin Ceccaldi (Joëlle Léandre), lays down grooves rivaling the heaviest of bassists while his violinist brother Théo Ceccaldi (Marc Ducret) shreds like a reincarnated Hendrix and pizzicatos like a possessed man sending urgent telegraphs that will change the course of history. Thanks to ADAMI (France) and SPEDIDAM (France).

July 1 • Roundhouse-Studio (Sylvain Darriourcq Workshop)
@ 1:30pm • Free

Sylvie Courvoisier Trio with Kenny Wollesen and Drew Gress

June 28 • Performance Works @ 2:30pm • Free

One of the New York downtown scene's most compelling pianist/composers, Sylvie Courvoisier (John Zorn, Mark Feldman) combines brilliant technique with boundless imagination. Straddling classical, jazz, free improv, and more, Courvoisier creates "a richly contoured sculpture" (AllAboutJazz) of sound with dynamic jazz masters Kenny Wollesen drums and Drew Gress bass.

Talking Pictures with Achim Kaufmann

June 23 • Innovation Series - The Ironworks Late Night @ Midnight • $21 All In or 3-Event Bundle & $46 All In

"Treading the blurry line between new music and jazz, Talking Pictures excels in juxtaposing sonic textures." —Ottawa Citizen

Formed in 1993 by guitarist/composer Ron Samworth, the wide-ranging sonic palette and empathic interplay of Talking Pictures has had a massive influence on Vancouver's creative music community. A key cultural ambassador through collaborations with the likes of Robin Holcomb and Wayne Horvitz and extensive touring throughout Canada and Europe, the group now performs infrequently for special projects like this collaboration with esteemed friend and colleague, German pianist Achim Kaufmann (Michael Moore, Han Bennink). With Peggy Lee cello, Bill Clark trumpet/EWI, and Dylan van der Schyff drums/percussion. **🇨🇦

Songlines Recording Artist—Celebrating 25 years!

Tami Neilson

July 1 • Roundhouse - David Lam Park Stage @ 5:15pm Free

Holy Moses! New Zealand-based Canadian vocalist Tami Neilson is a powerhouse talent in the tradition of Patsy Cline, Aretha Franklin, and Amy Winehouse. Critically acclaimed and a fan favourite, Tami's captivating voice, soulful sass, and stunning songs will get you right in the feels. Texas swing, gospel, Motown, and country-noir cool, Tami's got it all! **🇨🇦

TD High School Jazz Intensive with Tomeka Reid

July 2 • Roundhouse - David Lam Park Stage @ Noon • Free

The culmination of an exciting and focused series of student music workshops led by Chicago-based experimental jazz cellist, composer, and educator Tomeka Reid, this performance gives the kids a chance to show off their chops, and gives all of us a chance to see some up-and-coming musical stars! **🇨🇦

Thievery Corporation

June 29 • Orpheum Theatre @ 8pm • $95-$110 All In

Rob Garza and Eric Hilton, AKA Thievery Corporation, have thrived for 20 years without a radio hit, a big budget video, or major label backing. Regardless, TC has managed to do high-profile TV appearances, sell millions of albums, and continue to expand the fan base worldwide. They've collaborated with such luminaries as David Byrne, The Flaming Lips, Femi Kuti, and Bebel Gilberto. Since 1996, Garza and Hilton have virtually defined an entire sub-genre of electronic music. And now, they're ready to embark on yet another journey with the release of their new album, The Temple of I & I. This monster mash aggregate will put you in the groove with a massive live band.

Thus Owls

June 24 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Late Night @ Midnight • $21 All In or 3 Event Bundle $46 All In

Blending chamber pop with “swirling, forceful and textured modern rock” (Wall Street Journal), Montreal’s ever-morphing, Polaris Prize-nominated Thus Owls is built around the core of Swedish/Canadian couple Erika and Simon Angell. But it’s in the shifting scenery that Thus Owls find their “mystical and enchanting” (Huffington Post) sound: the pair has worked with Liam O’Neill (Suuns), Stefan Schneider (Bell Orchestre) and Icelandic neoclassicist Daniel Bjarnason (Sigur Rós, Efterklang). A Patrick Watson collaborator, Simon’s charismatic guitar meets the urgency of Erika’s voice to stretch their already unusual indie-pop/avant-jazz compositions into new and surprising shapes. With Joshua Zubot violin, Samuel Joly drums. **🇨🇦

Tierney Sutton Band: The Sting Variations

June 27 • Kay Meek Centre @ 7:30pm • $40 All In

Superb song-stylist Tierney Sutton has received seven consecutive GRAMMY nominations for “Best Vocal Jazz Album”—a nomination for every project she’s released in the past decade! The New York Times states, “Ms. Sutton is a pure jazz spirit who respects a song. Even when going out on an improvisatory limb, she never lets its essence slip away.” Having recently garnered critical and popular acclaim with re-imaginings of Joni Mitchell’s Blue, the Tierney Sutton Band now turns its considerable talents to the diverse contemporary jazz-inflected pop repertoire of former Police front man Sting. With Christian Jacob piano, Trey Henry bass, Ray Brinker drums.

Tim Sars Sextet

June 24 • Downtown Jazz – Robson Stage @ Noon • Free

Baritone saxophonist Tim Sars electrifies audiences with his considerable charm and top notch chops! From the slamming Afro-funk of Camaro 67 to the gleefully inclusive fun of the Carnival Band, he’s a treasure. His happening sextet features Jocelyn Waugh trumpet, Bryan Milks tenor sax, Jen Lewin keys, Brendan Krieg drums, Evan Bates bass. **🇨🇦

Tommy Emmanuel (with Jenn Bojrm & Khingfisher)

June 25 • The Vogue Theatre @ 8pm • $55/60 All In

Currently calling Nashville home, Australian guitar master Tommy Emmanuel draws out the full emotional range and power of his instrument, pulling inspiration from perfect imperfections and intrepid improvisations. Emmanuel is a multiple-GRAMMY nominee, perennial Guitar Player magazine favorite, and Member of the Order of Australia. “Technically dazzling and atmospheric” (Chicago Tribune), Emmanuel’s other-worldly ability to play complex melodies, supporting chords, and bass at once is matched only by the deep humanity of his music. Blues, folk, and beyond, “the guitar work is mesmerizing” (No Depression).

Tom Wherrett’s Evil Three with Skye Brooks

July 1 • Roundhouse – Exhibition Hall @ 6pm • Free

Vancouver guitarist Tom Wherrett writes beautifully arcing, complex tunes that bridge cerebral jazz and groove-driven post-rock. Thought-provoking and head-bobbing, there’s still lots of room for seriously stunning melodies within the dense and muscular rhythms of James Meger bass, Omar Amlani drums, and special guest drummer Skye Brooks (Copilots, Fond of Tigers). **🇨🇦

ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Tony Foster Quartet featuring Pasquale Grasso

June 30, July 1 • Frankie's Jazz Club @ 8pm • $20 plus tax

Pianist Tony Foster is joined by guitarist Pasquale Grasso, bassist Nate Parker, and drummer Joe Poole for this celebration of Foster's latest album Project Paradiso. The quartet will also perform classics by Oscar Peterson, Phineas Newborn Jr, Wes Montgomery and others. **🇨🇦

Thanks to the Italian Cultural Centre, Vancouver.

Tony Wilson & Let's Burn Down the Cornfield

June 30 • Performance Works @ 2:30pm • Free

West Coast guitarist/composer Tony Wilson brings his stratospheric imagination and serpentine playing to this new project that blends a lean jazz trio with strings. Layered melodies, intricate polyrhythms, and gorgeous textures with Joshua Zubot and Meredith Bates violins, Jesse Zubot viola, Peggy Lee cello, James Meger bass, and Dylan van der Schyff drums. **🇨🇦

Torsten Müller/ David Stackenäs

June 30 • Innovation Series – The Ironworks Afternoon Sessions @ 5pm • Free

"Cunningly enigmatic" (Jazz Weekly) Swedish guitarist David Stackenäs brings his novel and disruptive approach to solo work and collaborations with avant-garde heavyweights like Thurston Moore, Mats Gustafsson, and Ken Vandermark. Vancouver improv great Torsten Müller (Phil Minton, Achim Kaufmann) is a far-ranging bassist who mixes extended technique with a masterful sense of empathic interplay and dynamics.

Thanks to the Swedish Arts Grant Committee.

Trevor Whitridge Quintet

June 24 • Granville Island – Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Cutting across a wide range of eras and genres—including traditional jazz, funk, fusion, and Latin jazz—budding Vancouver trumpeter Trevor Whitridge incorporates inspiration from Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers, the Omar Thomas Large Ensemble, and beyond. With Rowan Whitridge saxes, Johnny Tobin piano, Marcus Abramzik bass, Miles Wong drums. **🇨🇦

Turning Point Ensemble meets Hollenbeck, Nachoff and Houle

June 27 & 28 • SFU Goldcorp Centre for the Arts @ 8pm $25 plus tax & sc

Turning Point Ensemble goes fifth stream in a concert that brings together three of the most innovative and influential musicians eliminating the boundaries between jazz and new music. Drummer and composer John Hollenbeck, four times nominated for GRAMMY Awards, is a drummer more like a mythical hydra, and a conceptualist able to translate the traditions of jazz and new music into a fresh, eclectic, forward-looking language of his own invention. JUNO-nominated Canadian tenor saxophonist Quinsin Nachoff has earned a reputation for making "pure, bracing, thought-provoking music" that is "cliché and convention free" (Ottawa Citizen). Vancouver's François Houle is "a spectacularly versatile clarinetist who appears to have no limitations stylistically or sonically" (LA Times). This one-of-a-kind program presents all new work especially written for these three superb musicians and the Turning Point Ensemble. **🇨🇦

Presented with Turning Point Ensemble & SFU Woodward's Cultural Programs.

V. Vecker (with Shobaleader One)

June 28 • Imperial @ 9pm • $39 All In

Armed with a synthesizer, loop pedal, and alto saxophone, Vancouver's V. Vecker creates a layered soundscape of ethereal saxophone drones and mysterious modal melodies. Vecker fuses the space between melody and atonality. Close your eyes and get lost in the textures. **🇨🇦

Wójciński/Szmańda Quartet

June 29 • Performance Works @ 2:30pm • Free

Featuring emerging Polish brothers bassist Ksawery Wójciński, trumpeter Maurycy Wójciński and pianist Szymon Wójciński, plus drummer Krzysztof Szmańda, this quartet's sound is based in free jazz but the almost-psychedelic link between the players results in a brilliantly cohesive sound. "What they all have in common is wild imagination, sensitivity, and considerable skills" (Jazzarium).

Thanks to Festival JAZZTOPAD, Poland, Polish Cultural Institute New York, Polish Institute of Adam Mickiewicz.

Wooden Eye

June 24 • Downtown Jazz – Robson Stage @ 3pm • Free

Wooden Eye draws inspiration from the novels of James Joyce as well as the music of Thelonious Monk, Duke Ellington, and Bela Bartok. Ulyssean in both the Joycean and the Homeric senses, this Victoria/Vancouver quintet occupies a distinct space where the daily and the mundane coexist with the epic and the magical. **🇨🇦

Wooden Horsemen

June 25 • Downtown Jazz – Georgia Stage @ 3:45pm • Free

"Americana rock with Latin and Afro influences, psych-funk, and folk... a melting pot of styles that has to be heard to be believed"—BeatRoute

A local band to watch, the nine-piece Wooden Horsemen have quickly evolved from the understated folk of their inception into a swaggering, gritty, horn-driven electric groove monster! **🇨🇦

ARTIST BIOGRAPHIES

Ziggy Marley (plus Buckman Coe)

June 26 • The Vogue Theatre @ 8 pm • $71/76 All In

"As cerebral as Ziggy Marley can be with his songwriting, his performances succeed on his physical enthusiasm as much as they do on provocative content. Couple that with a band that is dynamic and sure at every turn, and what emerges is two hours of pulsating, heart-pumping elation." —JamBands.com

Pop/reggae superstar Ziggy Marley just took home another GRAMMY—his eighth—for his sublime new self-titled recording. Thirteen albums into his legendary career, his uplifting and dance floor shaking message of hope in the face of adversity is stronger than ever—just when we need it the most!

MADE in the UK

JAZZ CONCERT SERIES

The UK jazz scene is known by aficionados to be among the deepest and most vibrant on the planet.

It's with sadness that we dedicate the sixth edition of Made in the UK to the project's late co-founder John Ellson, who died last September at the age of 64. A jazz impresario of the old school, Mr. Ellson was active in a multitude of capacities: arranging tours with legends, artist and road management. Notably he was a co-founder of Serious Productions (along with John Cumming) the producer of today's London Jazz Festival.

Developed with fellow Canadian John Nugent (Rochester Jazz Festival) the pioneering Made in the UK series was one of his greatest achievements—an important initiative that afforded British artists valuable opportunities to showcase at the Rochester Jazz Festival and select Canadian festivals.

One of the most beloved people in the jazz business, Mr. Ellson was a joy to work with; a generous and gregarious raconteur who will be missed by everyone who came into contact with him.

This year we welcome back a couple of our faves from past editions of Made in the UK —Phronesis and the Neil Cowley Trio—and for the first time, a brilliant new trumpet voice, the young award-winning Laura Jurd and her band Dinosaur.

SPOTLIGHT ON Italy

Italy is the home of culture—food, wine, la dolce vita, and of course, music. This year, Coastal Jazz is thrilled to partner with a number of Italian organizations to spotlight the finest artists working in Italian jazz at the 2017 TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival.

The spectrum of Italian music is as diverse as the geography and culture of the country of Italy itself, and the music showcased will celebrate this diversity with a range of musical approaches and practices.

We're pleased to welcome back old friend Antonio Ciaccia, and to introduce audiences to new talent like saxophonist Nicola Fazzini, guitarist Pasquale Grasso, and pianist Rossano Sportiello.
