Slated delegate System

Important Dates:

- March 15, 2016: Primary vote
- April, 2016: Congressional district caucuses
- April 22 – April 23, 2016: Quarterly meeting

Number of Delegates:

- 81 District delegates
- 15 At-large delegates
- 3 Party leaders and elected officials
- Total: 99

Process:

1. There is a primary vote by which delegates are allocated to each candidate.
2. After the primary, the winning presidential candidate submits slates of people they would like as delegates.
3. At the congressional district caucuses, district-level delegates are elected from the slate of delegates submitted by the candidates
4. At the quarterly meeting, at-large delegates are elected from the slate of delegates submitted by the candidate.

Allocation:

- All 99 delegates from Florida will be allocated to the winner of the primary vote.

Filing information:

- Since the delegates are chosen by the presidential candidates there are no filing deadlines.
