

RNC CALIFORNIA

Slated delegate System

Important Dates:

- June 7, 2016: Primary vote

Number of Delegates:

- 159 District delegates
- 10 At-large delegates
- 3 Party leaders and elected officials
- Total: 172

Process:

1. There is a primary vote by which delegates are allocated to each candidate.
2. After the primary, the presidential candidates that received delegates based on the outcome of the vote, whether at-large or district-level, select the delegates that will represent them at the national convention.

Allocation of Delegates:

- At the district level the delegates are allocated by the vote in each congressional district and the high vote getting candidate receives all 3 delegates from the district
- All the at-large delegates are given to the highest vote getter statewide.

Filing information:

- Since the delegates are selected by the presidential candidates, there are no filing requirements to become delegate.
