

RNC LOUISIANA

2-tiered system

Important Dates:

- March 1, 2016: District caucuses
- March 5, 2016: Primary vote
- June 4, 2016: State Convention

Number of Delegates:

- 18 District delegates
- 20 At-large delegates
- 5 Uncommitted delegates
- 3 Party leaders and elected officials
- Total: 46

Process:

1. The Primary vote occurs and the number of delegates each candidate receives is allocated based on the results of the vote.
2. District caucuses are held to elect delegates to the state convention.
3. The state convention meets to elect at-large and district-level delegates based on the allocation from the primary vote. There are congressional district meetings that elect district level delegates to the national convention.

Allocation of Delegates:

- The district-level delegates will be allocated proportional to the results of the primary vote in each congressional district.
- The at-large delegates will be determined by the outcome of the presidential primary vote and will be allocated proportionally to candidates that receive over 25% of the vote.

Filing information:

- Both district and at-large delegates must file with the Louisiana State Republican Party at 530 Lakeland Drive, Suite 215 Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70802
- District-level delegates must file in the congressional district in which they live.
