Important Dates:

- May 18, 2016: Filing deadline for at-large delegates and PLEOs
- June 7, 2016: Primary vote
- June 7, 2016: Filing deadline for district-level delegates
- June 18, 2015: Congressional district conventions
- June 22, 2016: State committee meeting

Number of Delegates:

- 38 District delegates
- 6 At-large delegates
- 4 Party leaders and elected officials (PLEOs)
- 9 Super-delegates
- Total: 57

Process:

1. There is a primary vote taken which determines the proportional allocation of delegates to the district and state conventions for each candidate that receives over 15% of the vote.
2. Congressional district conventions are held to elect the district level delegates.
3. At the state committee meeting, at-large delegates and PLEOs are elected by the party committee.

Allocation of Delegates:

- A candidate must receive 15% of the vote to get delegates at either the district or state level.
- At the district level, delegates are split between the 3 congressional districts based on the Democratic make-up of those districts. The delegates are pledged to candidates proportional to the portion of the vote they receive in that district.
- At the state level, 6 at-large delegates and 4 PLEOs are pledged to the candidates based proportionally on the votes of the entire state.

Filing information:

- To qualify as a district-level delegates, at-large delegate, or PLEO, a statement of candidacy designating the presidential preference must be filed with the state party.
- District-level delegates must additionally submit a petition with 50 signatures to the state party by the filing deadline.
- District-level delegates must file in the district or sub district in which they live.
