Number of Delegates:

- 16 District delegates
- 4 At-large delegates
- 4 Party leaders and elected officials (PLEOs)
- 4 Super delegates
- Total: 28

Process:

1. At the neighborhood caucuses, delegates to the county conventions are elected. There is also a presidential preference vote taken at each caucus which determines the allocation of delegates to each candidate that receives at least 15% of the vote. These delegates are allocated proportionally to each candidate.
2. County conventions are held to elect delegates to the state convention.
3. At the state convention, at-large delegates, district-level delegates, and PLEOs will be elected according to the results of the caucuses. At the state convention, congressional district caucuses meet to elect the district-level delegates and the entire state convention elects the at-large delegates and PLEOs.

Allocation of Delegates:

- A candidate must receive 15% of the vote to get delegates at either the district or state level.
- At the district level, delegates are split between the 4 congressional districts based on the Democratic make-up of those districts. The delegates are pledged to candidates proportional to the portion of the vote they receive in that district.
- At the state level, 4 at-large delegates and 4 PLEOs are pledged to the candidates proportionally based on the results of the caucus votes state-wide.
