Latest News with the Contra Costa Republican Party

The Contra Costa Republican Party unanimously elected Matt Shupe as its new chairman at the March 12th meeting. Matt served as the communications chair for two years prior to serving as chair. Since his election, he has issued a statement in support of Contra Costa Sheriff Livingston's decision to post the release date of criminal illegal immigrants in opposition to California's "Sanctuary State" policies. Matt was quoted in the SF Chronicle saying, "I'm proud that ... Sheriff David Livingston has decided to prioritize the safety of Contra Costa's residents and visitors over the perverse political agenda of the Democratic Party leaders in Sacramento." Matt's priority for the 2018 year is to elect and reelect Republicans running in Contra Costa.

The following candidates were endorsed by the Contra Costa Republican Party

- Mark Meuser, candidate for Secretary of State
- Marla Livengood, candidate for Congressional District 9
- Rudy Peters, candidate for Congressional District 15
- Pranav Jandhyala, candidate for Assembly District 15

Other candidates endorsed by the Contra Costa Republican Party include:

- Assemblywoman Catharine Baker
- Paul Graves, candidate for Contra Costa District Attorney
