

The Divest From the War Machine coalition is urging adoption of the following investment screen:

Prohibit investments in companies that manufacture, design, or sell the components or primary systems for military weapons - including, but not limited to nuclear, chemical, biological, incendiary, cluster munitions, anti-personnel landmines, and small arms; and the companies that produce components or primary systems for delivering those weapons – including, but not limited to planes, helicopters, and drones.