

AHAVA Cosmetics: STOLEN BEAUTY
Ahava promises
“Beauty Secrets from the Dead Sea.”
And wait until you hear those secrets!

Because Ahava is hiding the ugly truth—its products come from stolen Palestinian natural resources in the Occupied West Bank, and are produced in the illegal settlement of Mitzpe Shalem. Don't let the “Made in Israel” sticker fool you—when you buy Ahava you help finance the destruction of hope for a peaceful and just future for both Israelis and Palestinians.

Ahava puts a pretty face on its crimes—defending its theft of Palestinian resources by claiming: “The Dead Sea and its treasures are international and do not belong to one nation.” This statement defies international law, and around the world people are standing up to Ahava's lies. The Dutch Foreign Minister called for an investigation into Ahava; a British Minister of Parliament denounced Ahava's fraudulent labeling; and the European Union ruled that settlement products such as AHAVA aren't considered Israeli.

Don't the facts about Ahava make your skin crawl? For instant relief visit www.stolenbeauty.org today, and help us get the word out—real beauty is more than skin deep!
