

Questions related to your local Groundwater Sustainability Agency (GSA):

1. What GSA are you in?:
2. How many voting members are there on the GSA board and who do they represent?:
3. What groundwater basin are you in?:
4. How many GSAs are in your groundwater basin? How will they be coordinated?:
5. How is your board/system/community involved in the GSA?:
6. Where is your GSA in the process of GSP development? (For example have they hired consultants? Formed committees? Are they working on a groundwater model?)?:
7. If you have participated, what are they key issues that come up at GSA meetings so far?

District specific statistics related to GSP development:

8. Number of service connections:
9. Population served (number of individuals):
10. District size in acres:
11. Do you have working/readable household meters?:
12. Number of active (currently being used) groundwater wells:
13. Depth of well(s):
14. Depth of well pump(s):
15. Current and/or past water quality issues or concerns?:

16. Number of backup (non-active) wells:
17. 2016 water consumption (system wide extractions):
18. 2013 water consumption (system wide extractions):
19. Approximate annual district budget:
20. Monthly water rate:
21. Pre-drought groundwater levels and year measured:
22. Current or recent groundwater levels and year measured: