Executive changes at the Conseil de la coopération de l'Ontario

Ottawa, December 18, 2018 - The Conseil de la coopération de l'Ontario (CCO) announces the departure of its Executive Director, Mr. Luc Morin. Mr. Morin has been an employee since 2008. News of his departure comes after it was announced he was offered a position within another organization. His last day with us will be on January 18, 2019.

Trained in Business Administration, Mr. Morin has been involved in Franco-Ontarian organizations for over 30 years, more specifically in economic, community and cultural development. Since his arrival in 2008, our organization has grown dramatically, and our team has gone to twelve employees from only two. The CCO has become an essential institution for the social and economic development of Ontario, now with four regional offices and a strong membership structure. The Board of Directors and the team would like to thank Mr. Morin for his passion, his tenacity and his engagement towards our organization over the years.

Starting on January 21, 2019, Mr. Morin will be the Executive Director of the Société économique de l'Ontario (SÉO), a member and partner organization. Our team would like to extend to Mr. Morin their best wishes of success in his new role.

Mr. Julien Geremie will lead the process as Interim Executive Director. Mr. Geremie is on the team since 2010, when he started as a Development Officer in the Ottawa region, before becoming Director of Development in 2013 and Deputy Executive Director in 2017. Holder of a Master's degree in Political Science from the University of Montreal, Mr. Geremie is a strong supporter of the co-operative values and an individual with deep attachment to our organization and its development. He will work with the Board of Directors to sustain his new role in a timely manner.

A heartfelt thank you to Mr. Morin for his exceptional contribution to the development and the success of our organization. We will be happy to work with him in his new role.
