The 116th Congress in Review

Preview version Fall 2020

Did your legislators make the grade?

Look inside to see how your U.S. representative and senators scored in the 116th Congress (spanning 2019-2020) on animal issues ranging from humane cosmetics and horse racing to wildlife trafficking and puppy mills. Then let them know that you're watching and you appreciate their support for animals, or if they haven't been standing up for animals, that you'd like to see them do more. Also, share the Humane Scorecard with family, friends, fellow advocates and local media outlets.

How HSLF calculated scores

Many animal protection issues never receive a recorded vote in Congress. Some are enacted by voice vote, and some languish. To accurately measure legislators' support, we count not just recorded votes but other meaningful ways they can help issues advance, such as co-sponsoring key bills and co-signing letters seeking increased enforcement of animal welfare laws. Dozens of animal protection bills are introduced each year; to give a balanced snapshot across a broad range of concerns, we only count co-sponsorship of a few priority bills that have a critical mass of support and a reasonable chance of enactment. Scores are given as percentages of the number of items counted. Prime sponsors of legislation and those who led on a letter to an agency also receive extra credit equal to one vote or cosponsorship and a  $\checkmark$  in the Leader column. Those who led on multiple legislative and/or regulatory efforts or led on a top priority issue counted in this scorecard receive double extra credit equal to two votes or co-sponsorships and a  $\star$  in the Leader column. If a legislator already has a score of 100 before counting the extra credit for leadership, that score appears in bold with a plus sign.

HSLF acknowledges the limitations of judging legislators based on a few votes, co-sponsorships, joint letters and leadership on animal issues. In some cases, legislators must miss votes for unavoidable reasons, such as a death in the family, serious illness, birth of a child or emergency in their district. Please also consider such unrecorded matters as performance on committees, positions of House or Senate leadership, constituent service and co-sponsorship of other animal protection bills not included in the scorecard.

The Humane Society Legislative Fund is a social welfare organization incorporated under section 501(c) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code and formed in 2004 as a separate lobbying affiliate of the Humane Society of the United States. HSLF works to pass animal protection laws at the state and federal levels, to educate the public about animal protection issues and to support humane candidates for office. ## SENATE SCORED ITEMS

Humane cosmetics

A ✓ indicates co-sponsorship of the Humane Cosmetics Act (S. 2886) to phase out testing of cosmetics on live animals and sale of animal-tested cosmetics in the U.S. These tests performed on rabbits, guinea pigs, rats and mice are intensely cruel and unreliable predictors of effects on humans. Cosmetic companies can choose from thousands of ingredients already known to be safe for people. For new ingredients, animal tests are unnecessary since many alternative methods-faster and less costly to perform-are available to ensure products are safe for human use. More than 1.8 billion consumers live in countries that have already adopted similar restrictions, and three states (Calif., Ill. and Nev.) now prohibit the sale of animal-tested cosmetics. SPONSORS:: Sens. Martha McSally, R-Ariz.; Cory Booker, D-N.J.

Big cats

A  $\checkmark$  indicates co-sponsorship of the Big Cat Public Safety Act (S. 2561) to reduce the number of tigers, lions and other big cats living in substandard conditions and protect public safety by banning public contact activities with these animals and prohibiting their possession by individuals and entities lacking a U.S. Department of Agriculture license. The constant breeding of big cats for experiences in which people pay to pet, feed and take photographs with the cubs has created an ongoing cycle of cruelty, with cubs discarded after just a few months and funneled into the pet trade or sent to substandard zoos or menageries. More than 400 incidents involving captive big cats have occurred in 46 states and the District of Columbia since 1990, including five children and 19 adults killed and hundreds of others who lost limbs or suffered other traumatic injuries. This bill would close loopholes in the Captive Wildlife Safety Act of 2003 and would not impact professionally run zoos and sanctuaries or their conservation programs.

SPONSOR: Sen. Richard Blumenthal, D-Conn.

Horse racing

A ✓ indicates co-sponsorship of the Horseracing Integrity Act (S. 1820) to address widespread doping-a key contributing factor to frequent horse fatalities on American racetracks—by banning race-day medication, increasing out-of-competition testing and establishing uniform national rules governing use of drugs in racehorses. This bill would end the hodgepodge of different rules in 38 U.S. racing jurisdictions by granting independent control over rulemaking, testing standards and enforcement processes to a new nonprofit headed by the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency. (Senators also received credit for sponsoring or co-sponsoring a related bill introduced in September, S. 4547, which addresses racetrack safety as well as doping of racehorses.) SPONSORS: S. 1820: Sens. Kirsten Gillibrand, D-N.Y.; Martha McSally, R-Ariz.; S. 4547: Sens. Mitch McConnell, R-Ky.; Gillibrand, D-N.Y.; McSally,

R-Ariz.; Dianne Feinstein, D-Calif.

Shark fin sales

A ✓ indicates co-sponsorship of the Shark Fin Sales Elimination Act (S. 877) to protect sharks from cruelty and preserve our oceans' fragile ecosystems. S. 877 would strengthen federal laws against finning, in which the fins of sharks are sliced off and the mutilated animals are tossed back into the ocean to die. The U.S. is both an end market and a transit point for shark fins obtained in countries with weak regulations or on the high seas where no nation's laws apply. Some shark populations worldwide have declined by as much as 90% in recent decades because of the fin trade. This bill would prohibit the trade in shark fins, expanding on the Shark Finning Prohibition Act of 2000 and the Shark Conservation Act of 2010 (laws that banned shark finning and the transportation on U.S.-flagged vessels of fins not "naturally attached" to the carcass).

SPONSORS: Sens. Cory Booker, D-N.J.; Shelley Moore Capito, R-W.Va.

Horse soring

A ✓ indicates co-sponsorship of the Prevent All Soring Tactics (PAST) Act (S. 1007) to crack down on the cruel practice of "soring," in which trainers deliberately inflict severe pain on the hooves and legs of Tennessee walking horses and related breeds to force them to perform an unnaturally highstepping gait for competitions. Congress passed the Horse Protection Act (HPA) 50 years ago to end this abuse, but rampant soring continues, as shown in a 2010 audit by the USDA's inspector general and by undercover investigations by the Humane Society of the United States in 2012 and 2015. The PAST Act would end the failed system of industry self-policing, ban the use of devices integral to soring, strengthen penalties and make illegal the actual soring of a horse—all for negligible cost as determined by the Congressional Budget Office. SPONSORS: Sens. Mike Crapo, R-Idaho; Mark Warner, D-Va.

Funding letter

A ✓ indicates that a member was one of the 41 senators who co-signed a group letter or submitted a parallel individual request in April to the agriculture appropriations subcommittee. These letters sought provisions in the fiscal year 2021 funding bill for enforcement of the Animal Welfare Act (AWA), HPA, Humane Methods of Slaughter Act and federal animal fighting law, and for programs to provide shelter options for domestic violence survivors with companion animals and to encourage veterinarians to locate in underserved areas. The letters also urged the subcommittee to direct the USDA to require that AWA-regulated facilities such as puppy mills and roadside zoos have disaster plans for the animals in their care. (Subcommittee and committee leaders don't sign letters to themselves but received credit because they have been responsive to these requests.)

Leader

A  $\checkmark$  indicates that the member earned extra credit for leading as a prime sponsor of pro-animal legislation (including items not scored on this chart) or a letter to an agency. A  $\star$  indicates that the member earned double extra credit for leading on multiple legislative or regulatory efforts or leading on a top priority issue.

HOUSE SCORED ITEMS

Humane cosmetics

A ✓ indicates co-sponsorship of the Humane Cosmetics Act (H.R. 5141) to phase out testing of cosmetics on live animals and sale of animal-tested cosmetics in the U.S. These tests performed on rabbits, guinea pigs, rats and mice are intensely cruel and unreliable predictors of effects on humans. Cosmetic companies can choose from thousands of ingredients already known to be safe for people. For new ingredients, animal tests are unnecessary since many alternative methods-faster and less costly to perform-are available to ensure products are safe for human use. More than 1.8 billion consumers live in countries that have already adopted similar restrictions, and three states (Calif., Ill. and Nev.) now prohibit the sale of animal-tested cosmetics. SPONSORS: Reps. Don Beyer, D-Va.; Vern Buchanan, R-Fla.; Tony Cárdenas, D-Calif.; Paul Tonko, D-N.Y.; Ken Calvert, R-Calif.

Puppy mills

A  $\checkmark$  indicates co-sponsorship of the Puppy Protection Act (H.R. 2442) to address serious gaps in welfare standards for tens of thousands of breeding dogs and puppies at large-scale breeding operations licensed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Although the agency recently finalized an important rule that includes some upgrades to dog care standards (e.g., requiring handson veterinary exams and 24-hour access to clean water), in many ways the regulations still allow overcrowded and inhumane conditions at puppy mills, which often result in sick puppies being sold to consumers. This bill would codify the recent rule's upgrades and make other long-overdue reforms, such as prohibiting the use of stacked cages and gridded or wire cage flooring, increasing cage size, mandating protection from extreme heat and cold, and requiring that breeders attempt to find humane placement for retired breeding dogs rather than destroying them.

Disaster planning

A ✓ indicates co-sponsorship of the Providing Responsible Emergency Plans for Animals at Risk of Emerging Disasters (PREPARED) Act (H.R. 1042) to require facilities regulated under the Animal Welfare Act (AWA) to submit annual contingency plans for the animals in their care during emergencies such as natural disasters, pandemics, power outages and animal escapes. Given the increasing frequency and intensity of weather-related emergencies, as well as the COVID-19 crisis and potential for serious staffing shortages, it is crucial-for the animals' sake and for the safety of first responders and the public-that facilities plan in advance how to handle tasks such as evacuation, shelterin-place, and provision of backup food and water, sanitation, ventilation and veterinary care. Disaster plans are already required under the accreditation process for many research facilities, zoos and aquariums; the PREPARED Act would ensure that puppy mills, roadside zoos and other outliers also have plans in place. SPONSORS: Reps. Dina Titus, D-Nev.; Peter King, R-N.Y.

Horse slaughter

A  $\checkmark$  indicates co-sponsorship of the Safeguard American Food Exports (SAFE) Act (H.R. 961) to protect horses and consumers by prohibiting the transport and export of U.S. horses to slaughter for human consumption. American horses aren't raised for food and are routinely given drugs that can be toxic to people if ingested. Horse slaughter is cruel, and the U.S. public overwhelmingly opposes it. Horses are often seriously injured or killed during long-distance transit. At the slaughter plant, horses rarely experience quick, painless deaths. This predatory industry doesn't "euthanize" old, sick horses; young and healthy horses are purchased, often by buyers misrepresenting their intentions, and killed for the overseas horsemeat market. SPONSORS: Reps. Jan Schakowsky, D-Ill.; Vern Buchanan, R-Fla.

HOUSE SCORED ITEMS

Horse racing

A  $\checkmark$  indicates co-sponsorship of the Horseracing Integrity Act (H.R. 1754) to address widespread doping—a key contributing factor to frequent horse fatalities on American racetracks—by banning race-day medication, increasing out-of-competition testing and establishing uniform national rules governing use of drugs in racehorses. This bill would end the hodgepodge of different rules in 38 U.S. racing jurisdictions by granting independent control over rulemaking, testing standards and enforcement processes to a new nonprofit headed by the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency.

Minibus #1

A  $\checkmark$  indicates a vote in favor of final passage of H.R. 7608, the initial package of fiscal year 2021 appropriations bills considered by the House, known as "minibus 1." We note that representatives had many reasons for voting as they did on this large multi-issue package, but we urged support for H.R. 7608 because it contains many vital animal protection measures we worked hard to secure. These include significant funding increases to curb horse soring, expand shelter options for domestic violence survivors with pets, and invest in new wildlife crossings (structural passages beneath or above roadways to reconnect habitat and reduce human and wildlife road fatalities). The bill also contains strong provisions to require that AWA-regulated facilities such as puppy mills and roadside zoos have disaster plans; prevent horse slaughter plants from operating in the U.S.; bar the import of endangered elephant and lion trophies; combat wildlife trafficking; protect wild horses and burros; maintain Endangered Species Act protections for gray wolves and other imperiled species; end cruel hunting practices on public lands in Alaska; sustain funding for animal testing alternatives; protect farm animals at USDA research facilities; reduce slaughterhouse kill speeds for the sake of animals, workers and food safety; and prevent future pandemics by curbing the live wildlife trade.

Funding letter

A  $\checkmark$  indicates that a member was one of the 207 representatives who co-signed a group letter or submitted a parallel individual request in March to the agriculture appropriations subcommittee. These letters sought provisions in the fiscal year 2021 funding bill for enforcement of the AWA, Horse Protection Act, Humane Methods of Slaughter

Act and federal animal fighting law, and for programs to provide shelter options for domestic violence survivors with companion animals and to encourage veterinarians to locate in underserved areas. The letters also urged the subcommittee to direct the USDA to require that AWA-regulated facilities such as puppy mills and roadside zoos have disaster plans for the animals in their care. (Subcommittee and committee leaders don't sign letters to themselves but received credit because they were responsive to these requests.)

Congressional Animal Protection Caucus

A ▲ indicates that the representative is a member of this caucus, led by Reps. Earl Blumenauer, D-Ore., and Vern Buchanan, R-Fla., which highlights important issues affecting animals and opportunities for legislators to help advance sensible reforms. Caucus membership doesn't affect numerical scores.

Leader

A  $\checkmark$  indicates that the member earned extra credit for leading as a prime sponsor of pro-animal legislation (including items not scored on this chart) or a letter to an agency. A  $\star$  indicates that the member earned double extra credit for leading on multiple legislative or regulatory efforts or leading on a top priority issue.
