

Accepted/ Partially Accepted General Claim Items

		Our Claim for Your Union Agreement	Government's Offer for Your Union Agreement	Commitments received outside of Your Union Agreement	What next?
Length	Accept	A two year term	A two year term
No Trade-Offs	Accept	No trade-offs	No trade-offs
Pay increases	Accept in part	Salary increases of 2.5% from 12 June 2017 and a further 2.5% increase 12 months later.	Salary increases of $1000 per annum (pro rata) increases in line with the Public Sector Wages Policy Statement 2017 , payable on and from 13 June 2017 and 13 June 2018.	The Government considered a wage freeze in April but did not apply this, opting instead for the flat rate increase change in State Wages Policy.
Employer preference	Accept	Employers undertake to engage employees on a permanent basis wherever possible; this is to be their default form of engagement.	Explicitly states that permanent employment is the preferred form of engagement. Confirms that casual employment, labour hire and other contract for service arrangements are not the preferred methods for delivery of service, and committing the Employer to work towards minimizing these modes of employment.	Letter from the Minister for Commerce dated 13 July 2017. "Direct employment provides a stable, engaged workforce, with the ability to provide appropriate advice to Government and the community on a range of important matters, as well as achieving financial efficiencies."
Labour Hire	Accept in part	Labour Hire employees only to be hired in limited circumstances Employers will record and collate data on the use of labour hire employees and provide it to your Union. Data will include, but will not be limited to: roles performed, workplace location, prescribed circumstance permitting the use of labour hire, dates of engagement/cessation, identity of labour hire businesses used and amounts paid to each business.	Commits employers to work towards minimizing the use of casual and labour hire employees. Requires employers to provide the names of labour hire businesses they use; the functions undertaken; the headcount number of labour hire employees performing the work; and amount of money paid to each labour hire business to the Joint Consultative Committee within 60 days of a request being made. Explicitly states that labour hire usage is a matter for consultation at Joint Consultative Committees.	*In the lead up to the election, WA Labor promised: "Review the use of contract for service arrangements and support the direct employment of staff where it is appropriate to do so." *Letter from the Minister for Commerce dated 13 July 2017. "I also take this opportunity to reaffirm the Government's commitment to direct employment within the public sector. Direct employment provides a stable, engaged workforce, with the ability to provide appropriate advice to Government and the community on a range of important matters, as well as achieving financial efficiencies" The CPSU/CSA has submitted a proposal for consultation to government outlining some initial ideas about labour hire. Government has indicated a willingness to share information and work with the Union on this issue.	We will use the information we obtain from employers to bring transparency and accountability to their use of labour hire, identify and challenge bad practices, and make the case for direct, permanent employment of staff.

Fixed-Term Contracts	Accept in part	After a continuous period of 18 months or more, where a fixed term contract employee undertakes the same or a similar role, the employee must be engaged on a permanent basis The letter of appointment for fixed term employees shall confirm the prescribed circumstances under the relevant Award or Agreement that permits fixed term engagement Employers are to inform the Civil Service Association of WA of the names and workplace locations of fixed term employees within 28 days of the request being made	Requires employers to specify reasons for engaging employees on a fixed term contract in writing. Requirement to provide your Union with the names and locations of all fixed term employees. Provides principles for the development of conversion to permanency criteria for fixed term contract employees and confirms the criteria will be the subject of consultation between your Union and Government. Requires employers, following the development of the conversion to permanency criteria, to review the employment status of fixed term and casual employees who are continuously employed for more than two years.	During the State election campaign, Labor promised to: “Develop criteria to convert existing employees including contract and casual employees with more than two years’ employment in a same or similar job to permanent and establish a process for this to continue in the future.” Letter from the Premier dated 13 June 2017. “I can reaffirm our commitments in relation to permanency-conversion processes for contract workers. A high level agreement will be considered as part of your General Agreement negotiations, with the operational detail being considered through a separate negotiation process with public sector unions.”	We will use this clause to actively contribute to the development of a conversion to permanency criteria that actually works for members. We will contact public sector workers on fixed term contracts to talk about their employment and how being a member of the CPSU/CSA could assist them in improving their job security. We will support members on fixed term contracts assess their eligibility for conversion to permanency and progress their claims.

		Our Claim	Bargaining	Commitments received outside of Your Union Agreement	What next?
Cessation of privatisation/contracting out	No agreement reached.	No contracting out of work undertaken by classifications of public sector employees covered by the Agreement for the term of the Agreement. There will be no extension of current contracts	Proposals were exchanged during negotiations, but agreement could not be reached. With the exception of the Employer Preference clause, no new provisions feature in the offer.	Letter from the Minister dated 13 July 2017. "The Premier has made it clear to the CSA that he values the work of your members, and that he and the Labor Government are committed to a strong public sector. I can reconfirm our election commitment to stop the privatisation of existing public sector services and where possible, and economically beneficial to do so, bring those services back into the public sector. I accept that in this situation the CSA definition of privatisation includes outsourcing of public sector services. While there has always been, and continues to be, activities carried out on behalf of Government by the private and not for profit sectors, the McGowan Labor Government is committed to the principle of a strong and dynamic public sector providing services to the community." It's worth noting that the Government has kept their promise to stop the privatisation of Disability Services Commission Supported Accommodation services.	We will continue to campaign to stop the privatisation of existing public services and, where possible, return privatized services to public hands. We will consider the full variety of possible mechanisms which would achieve this end – including those that would sit outside Your Union Agreement – in our future campaigning.
