Connecticut Puerto Rican Agenda Founding Assembly

The Connecticut Puerto Rican Agenda is a chapter of the National Puerto Rican Agenda which seeks to work with the government, political parties, community organizations, faith groups and most importantly, the public to make the mission of this organization a reality. The Agenda includes but is not limited to:

- Political Participation in United States
- Policies Affecting Puerto Rico/Puerto Ricans
- Bi-lingual Education
- The Political Status of Puerto Rico
- Oscar Lopez
- Our Health in the USA, and in Puerto Rico
- Preserving and Celebrating the Puerto Rican History & Culture
- Renewable Energy/Environmental protection
- Racism in America

Join us for our official incorporation! We will bring together Puerto Ricans from across the state to network, find ways to support the struggle on the island and our struggles here, and to elect a leadership team to move our agenda forward.

June 3rd, 2017 9am – 3pm at
Roberto Clemente Leadership Academy
360 Columbus Ave., New Haven, CT 06519
