Incident Summary

Robert McCullough was arrested on 04/09/2014 at 1st Ave N and 6th St N in Minneapolis for misdemeanor Disorderly Conduct. He was booked into the Hennepin County Adult Detention Center. When he was released from custody the following day, he attempted to retrieve his cash from the Minneapolis Police Department Property and Evidence Unit but learned that no cash was inventoried. McCullough alleges that he went back to the Property and Evidence Unit four days later only to learn that his cash was still not inventoried. McCullough alleges that he then went to the First Precinct to inquire and make phone calls to find his cash. This cash, in the amount of $97.00, was inventoried as non-evidence by Officer Jarrod Silva on 04/15/2014, six days after Robert McCullough's arrest. McCullough filed a complaint with the Office of Police Conduct Review alleging theft; this complaint was signed by Robert McCullough on 05/08/2014. Robert McCullough later received a notification letter from the Minneapolis Police Department Property and Evidence Unit dated 05/08/2014. Robert McCullough retrieved his cash from the Property and Evidence unit on 05/09/2014.

Allegations

1. Violation of the Policy and Procedure Manual: that Officer Silva of the First Precinct CRT Unit failed to property inventory Robert McCullough's $97.00 cash until six days after arresting him for Disorderly Conduct.

Allegation #1: Violation of the Policy and Procedure Manual

That Officer Silva of the First Precinct CRT Unit failed to property inventory Robert McCullough's $97.00 cash until six days after arresting him for Disorderly Conduct.

Supportive Findings:

Officer Silva admitted he did not inventory the cash before the end of his shift when he made the initial arrest. The CAPRS report supports that the cash did not get inventoried until 6 days after the arrest.

MPD policy states that property and evidence shall be inventoried prior to the end of an officers shift and Officer Silva did failed to do this.

These support the findings of merit by the panel.

Wednesday, 16 April 2014

Events of Wednesday, 9 April 2014 at 11:10 am at 6th St N & 1st Ave N

My name is Daniel Robert Romig, born 24 August 1962. My address is 3717 35th Ave S, Minneapolis MN 55406. Cell phone number is 612.275.1007

I am a ticket broker, and I was standing on the sidewalk on the east side of the corner of 6th St N and 1st Ave N trying to sell my clients' Minnesota Twins tickets to the 12:10 pm game against the Oakland Athletics when I was approached by Bob McCullough. Bob walked to me from the corner of 5th St N and 1st Ave N along the sidewalk on the southeast side of 1st Ave N.

When we met, he asked me what tickets I had for sale. I informed him I had 4 tickets in section 110 for $30 each. He countered with a $20 dollar each offer, which I declined. Bob then increased his offer to $25 each and I accepted. I handed my tickets to him, and he paid me $85. As he was attempting to pay me the remaining $15, two police officers in 'plain clothes' emerged from the east of us and positioned themselves behind Bob's back.

I saw that these men had their badges visible, and were police officers. They restrained Bob's hands and handcuffed him. I had the $85 dollars paid by Bob still in hand, and one of the officers now had the 4 tickets that I'd given to Bob and the money Bob was assembling to balance out the $100 transaction in his hands. It appeared to be two five dollar bills and six to eight one dollar bills.

"Does he owe you any more money?" the officer on the east side asked me.

"Well, he was buying these tickets for one hundred dollars, and has paid me eighty-five." I answered showing the cash I was holding. As the officer was going through the remaining cash he'd taken from Bob, I added, "It's up to you sir. I'd just as soon return the eighty-five dollars, and get my tickets back. We're both ticket brokers."

The officer nodded, and we exchanged the cash paid to me by Bob for the tickets, and the tickets now were in my hands again. Within a few moments Bob was being led to a squad car in handcuffs, and the officer now had in his possession just over one hundred dollars that was in Bob's possession minutes prior to this time.

"Thank you sir, I'm Dan Romig, Dan the TicketMan." I stated to identify myself and thank the officer for letting me return money to Bob and have my tickets back to sell. The officer with the cash looked me in the eye, acknowledged me for a moment and departed.
