

Disability Activist Award

NOMINATIONS

Do you know a CUPE member who's been an outstanding activist for rights for disabled workers?

Has your local been at the forefront in advocating for disabled workers rights?

The award is presented at the CUPE BC Convention to:

- A Local CUPE member, OR
- A CUPE Local

Recognizing work within CUPE that:

- Through concrete actions, demonstrates a deep commitment for disabled workers rights;
- breaks barriers to participation in CUPE;
- shows initiative and a pioneering spirit in promoting workers' rights;
- provides leadership and acts as a role model for activism;
- supports equity and promotes understanding of the strength our union gains from diversity;
- strengthens the labour movement;
- contributes to their community in building a stronger social movement

Who can nominate?

CUPE locals, divisions or committees at any level of CUPE can nominate a worker or local for the award.

The award winner receives a certificate and CUPE will make a $500.00 donation to the disability rights organization of their choice.

Nominations should be submitted to CUPE BC
no later than March 17, 2019.

Nominating body (local, committee, district council):

Contact person: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Nominee:

Name and/or Local : _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

1. Please tell us why you are nominating this CUPE member or local for the Disability Activist Award?

2. Please describe what this nominee(s) has done to champion disability rights in the workplace, in the union, in the community.

3. How has this nominee(s) inspired, influenced, or mentored others in the union, workplace, and/or community.

4. What else should we know about this nominee(s)?