

The CWC invites you to join us for an evening of art and conversation at the PASADENA MUSEUM OF HISTORY
housed in the elegant Fenyes Mansion on Thursday, February 28th, 2019

Something Revealed; California Women Artists Emerge, 1860-1960 stands to dispel the misconception that women were limited in their subject matter and demonstrate that women, especially here in California, have historically made their mark in a male dominated world.

3:45pm	Check-in at the Pasadena Museum of History
4:00 – 5:15 p.m.	Docent introduction & exhibit tour
5:30 – 7:00 p.m.	No host get together at Mijares Mexican Restaurant 145 Palmetto Drive Pasadena, CA 91105

$9 entrance fee payable in advance online at https://www.cwccaltech.org/california_women_artists or by check payable to Caltech Women's Club
mail to: Katie Clark, Caltech MC 147-75, Pasadena, CA 91125

For more information, contact Katie Clark at (626) 710-0514 or ktclark@caltech.edu
RSVP by Thursday, February 21, 2019

Name: _____

Number of Attendees: _____ Need a ride? _____ Able to provide a ride? _____

Email: _____ Cell Phone: _____