RENT & EVICTION

Housing and Community Investment Department - hcidla.lacity.org/covid-19-renter-protections - (866) 557-7368

- You CANNOT be evicted for nonpayment of rent during the COVID-19 crisis. All you need to do is let your landlord know in writing that you cannot pay all or part of your rent due to COVID-19 within 7 days of your rent due date.
- You are NOT required to provide documentation such as pay stubs, bank statements, or communication from your employer, to your landlord, though you should keep documentation for your own records.
- You are NOT required to sign any new agreements with your landlord, but you can work out a payment plan if you choose to do so. You have up to 12 months from the end of the emergency to pay back rent.

ADDITIONAL PROTECTIONS FOR RSO

Housing and Community Investment Department - hcidla.lacity.org/RSO-Overview - (866) 557-7368

- If you live in an apartment subject to the Rent Stabilization Ordinance (RSO), your rent CANNOT be increased during the emergency and for 3 months after the end of the emergency order.
- RSO generally applies to multi-family complexes built before 1978. To find out if your unit is RSO, visit hcidla.lacity.org/Is-My-Rental-Unit-Subject-to-the-RSO
