

Is your school's sexual education curriculum comprehensive?

- ☐ Does your school teach that sexuality is a healthy and normal part of life?
- ☐ Does your school teach that abstinence is the most effective method of preventing unwanted pregnancies and/or STDs?
 - ☐ Or, does your school teach that only abstinence is acceptable?
- ☐ Does your school provide an abundance of information about topics regarding sexuality, including but not limited to: sexual expression, sexual orientation, gender vs. sex, relationships, culture, and society?
- ☐ Does your school's curriculum offer relevant and factually accurate information about sex?
 - ☐ Or, does your school avoid teaching controversial topics like abortion, sexual orientation, and masturbation?
 - ☐ Does your school teach that STDs and pregnancy are the inevitable consequences of sex?
- ☐ Is your school's sex ed curriculum sex-positive, yet also discusses the benefits of abstinence?
 - ☐ Or, does your school use fear tactics in order to promote the idea that only abstinence is acceptable?
- ☐ Does your school discuss birth control and various methods of contraception?
 - ☐ such as how the proper usage of condoms can usually prevent unwanted pregnancy and STDs
- ☐ Does your school allow you to explore your own religious values in terms of your sexual expression?
 - ☐ Or, does your school teach a particular set of religious values?
- ☐ Does your school teach that in the situation of an unintended pregnancy, there are a variety of options?
 - ☐ Carry on with the pregnancy and raise the baby
 - ☐ Carry on with the pregnancy and give the baby up for adoption
 - ☐ Getting an abortion
- ☐ Does your school provide comprehensive resources for you to find out more about these topics?
 - ☐ Information about how to receive a test for STDs
 - ☐ Information on how to get access to different methods of birth control
 - ☐ Resources on people/organizations to talk to about options with pregnancy