

DC WOMEN IN POLITICS

PRESS RELEASE

Contact:
Anita Bellamy Shelton
(202) 234-9089

DC WOMEN IN POLITICS (DCWIP) ANNOUNCE RESULTS FROM PREFERENCE POLL

WASHINGTON, DC, OCTOBER 31, 2018 — DC Women in Politics announces the winners from a preference poll held during a DC Women in Politics (DCWIP) October 13 forum with candidates—Anita Bonds, Elissa Silverman and Dionne Reeder—who are on the November 6 ballot for the At-Large City Council seat.

The results of the votes cast for the preference poll are:

- Anita Bonds won 44% of the votes cast
- Dionne Reeder won 42% of the votes cast
- Elissa Silverman won 28% of the votes cast

###

DC Women in Politics is a diverse nonpartisan, nonprofit women's leadership organization. Our mission is to increase the number of women elected to public office and to monitor their legislative and advocacy actions on issues that impact women and families. For more information about DC Women in Politics visit www.dcwomeninpolitics.org, follow us on Twitter at dcwomen_politics, and on Facebook at: DCWomenInPolitics.

Friday, October 26th - Early Voting Starts in Wards

Tuesday, November 6th - General Election

For more information email anitabshelton@gmail.com

