

RACP: Ask HESTA and First State Super to divest from fossil fuels

RACP MEMBERS ONLY please sign below and the following email will be sent on your behalf:

The RACP have thus far declined to write to health super funds calling on them to divest from fossil fuels.

But with a climate change-themed RACP Congress coming up in mid-May, now's the perfect time to change the game.

Enter your details below to sign our letter calling on the RACP to ask HESTA and First State Super to divest from fossil fuels.

*Required Fields

| *Full Name                   | *Email                   | Postcode    | Phone               | Occupation | Workplace  | Signature      | Stay in Touch? |
|------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------|---------------------|------------|------------|----------------|----------------|
| eg. Dr. Citizen Smith | c.smith@gmail.com | 3000 | 0400 000 000 | GP  | RMH | C Smith | ✓       |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |

Your contact details will only be used to email the petition recipient and to notify you of progress on this campaign as well as related events and campaigns.

Volunteers please enter collected data at www.healthyfutures.net.au/racp

RACP: Ask HESTA and First State Super to divest from fossil fuels

RACP MEMBERS ONLY please sign below and the following email will be sent on your behalf:

The RACP have thus far declined to write to health super funds calling on them to divest from fossil fuels.

But with a climate change-themed RACP Congress coming up in mid-May, now's the perfect time to change the game.

Enter your details below to sign our letter calling on the RACP to ask HESTA and First State Super to divest from fossil fuels.

*Required Fields

| *Full Name                   | *Email                   | Postcode    | Phone               | Occupation | Workplace  | Signature      | Stay in Touch? |
|------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------|---------------------|------------|------------|----------------|----------------|
| eg. Dr. Citizen Smith | c.smith@gmail.com | 3000 | 0400 000 000 | GP  | RMH | C Smith | ✓       |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |
|                              |                          |             |                     |            |            |                |                |

Your contact details will only be used to email the petition recipient and to notify you of progress on this campaign as well as related events and campaigns.

Volunteers please enter collected data at www.healthyfutures.net.au/racp