

Jennifer von Estorff is one of the most gifted and committed members of DAG I have had the pleasure of working with. While many reading this will already be familiar with Jennifer in her role as Secretary, where she has served since March, I have had a ringside seat since September to the countless tasks she executes "behind the scenes," for which we rarely get the opportunity to thank her.

Jennifer's open, friendly, but military-grade-organized approach to communication made my transition to GOTV Coordinator in the midst of a presidential election something close to smooth. Jennifer was also personally responsible – both individually and as the backbone of the Voter Assistance Team -- for helping over 1500 overseas voters submit their completed ballots in time to be counted. When we were surprised by the Georgia Senate contest after November 3, Jennifer stepped right up to organize voter outreach and assistance through all possible channels. The results speak for themselves.

Jennifer has earned the respect of everyone in the organization who has had the pleasure of working with her. The fact that she was recently re-elected Vice-Chair of Göttingen-Hannover after having served simultaneously in multiple roles at the national level speaks volumes about her personal as well as professional qualities.

I wholeheartedly endorse Jennifer for Secretary. With her deep knowledge of DAG, she is also exceptionally well-qualified to serve as Voting Representative. I encourage you to grant Jennifer the opportunity to continue her work on behalf of the organization and overseas voters!
