Supporting the David Horowitz Freedom Center
Through Your Will or Trust
Sample Bequest Language

Your will or living trust plays a key part in providing for the financial security of your family and others you care about, but it also offers a way to make an impactful charitable gift to help assure the future success of the David Horowitz Freedom Center and the cause for which we fight.

A will or trust is an important legal document, so please contact an attorney for assistance. Adding the Freedom Center to your will or trust does not require you to rewrite the entire document. It can be accomplished by having your attorney add a document to your will or trust spelling out your gift. Methods of making a legacy gift of assets to the Freedom Center without a will or trust are described at the following links on our website (www.horowitzfreedomcenter.org/legacy):

Gifts of Retirement Assets
Gifts of Life Insurance
Gifts of Bank and Investment Accounts

A gift directed to the David Horowitz Freedom center without restriction allows us to use the gift where it’s most needed. However, if there is a particular program or programs of the Freedom Center to which you would like to direct your support (e.g., TruthRevolt, FrontPage Magazine, etc.) in addition to or instead of our general operations, we will be happy to work with you to make sure that your gift is directed appropriately. If you’d like to add such a restriction to your gift, simply replace the bracketed text, “[for restriction, if applicable]” in the examples below with the name of the specific program(s) you’d like to support. For example, you could replace the bracketed text with, “for general operations and TruthRevolt” or, “for FrontPage Magazine,” and so on.

To help you with this important decision, here are some suggested bequest wording samples you can review with your advisor.
