Calamvale Community Morning Tea to Support Red Bow Month

Duncan Pegg MP, Member for Stretton is hosting a 'Morning Tea for Muscular Dystrophy' at the Calamvale Salvation Army Hall on Monday 6 March 2017, raising money for families living with Muscular Dystrophy during Red Bow Month.

Mr Pegg said, 'I am pleased to be hosting a community morning tea to raise money for this worthy cause.'

'Muscular Dystrophy Queensland is seeking to raise funds to provide life changing services and support during their annual Red Bow Appeal, held in March each year, and I am happy to help where I can,' he said.

Both the Health Minister, Hon. Cameron Dick, and Muscular Dystrophy Queensland CEO Helene Frayne will be attending the morning tea.

Mr Pegg said, 'researchers and doctors are learning more about the causes of muscular dystrophy and various treatments are being trialled to stop the progression of the disease.'

Organisations like Muscular Dystrophy Queensland work to ensure that people with MD and their carers are aware of, and have access to, preventative health education, services, and community support.

Mr Pegg said, 'fundraising events such as these will assist people living with MD and their families and carers. If you are free on the day I encourage you to come along.'

The morning tea is open to all community members. Entry is by gold coin donation with all proceeds being donated to Muscular Dystrophy Queensland. RSVP by 3 March 2017 via stretton@parliament.qld.gov.au or phone 3414 3110.
