Multicultural Launch for Red Shield Appeal

A Multicultural launch of the Red Shield Appeal will be held at the Calamvale Salvation Army Hall at 4pm on 18 May 2017.

Every year the Salvation Army raise money to support vulnerable Australians dealing with homelessness, family crisis and addiction.

Duncan Pegg MP, Member for Stretton said, 'everyone knows the Salvos, and the great work they do in the community. That is why I am pleased to be supporting the Red Shield Appeal, Multicultural Launch in Calamvale.'

'The Salvos provide a wide range of services to those in need. By teaming up with multicultural groups they will be able to reach out to people who may not know that help is out there,' he said.

Hon. Grace Grace, Minister for Multicultural Affairs, and Major Phil Gluyas from the Calamvale Salvation Army Corps will be joining me for this important event.
