Better Impact Application Form Training Guide

What to Expect

The information collected on the application form will build your volunteer profile. The form includes questions about your preferred contact information, availability, areas of interest, previous volunteer experience, your skills and strengths, and why you want to volunteer for us.

Information collected on the application form will not be shared and is only accessible by our staff.

The form does not ask for any banking information. The data collected is required to help us engage and schedule you more effectively.

Special Notes

The application form needs to be completed in one sitting. Once you have begun the process, you are not able to stop and resume. As such, we recommend that you complete your application when you have roughly 30 minutes free from interruption.

The form requires the contact information for two (2) references as well as someone who you can list as your emergency contact. It is recommended that you compile this information in advance.

DWDC Code of Conduct
DWDC's board of directors, staff and volunteers are expected to conduct themselves, and the work they perform on behalf of the organization, in a manner that safeguards its reputation and is respectful of all people with whom they come in contact. They should complete their work in accordance with the core values of DWDC which are: to be person-centred, have compassion, integrity and courage, and foster collaboration. The Code of Conduct aims to ensure DWDC activities are conducted in an open, fair and transparent manner. It defines acceptable behaviours, promotes the highest standards of practice and establishes a framework for ethical conduct and responsibilities for the directors, staff, and volunteers of DWDC.
The purpose of this code of conduct is not to restrict your rights, but rather to be certain that you understand what behavior and conduct is expected and necessary when each
