LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR OF PROGRAM & OPERATIONS

Hi everyone! My name is Xiomara (See-Oh-Mah-Rah) Maldonado, and I am now Sirovich's Director of Program and Operations. I started working for Educational Alliance in 2013 at the Weinberg Center and moved to Sirovich as the Assistant Director in 2015. I am honored to have been chosen to lead the Sirovich team, which works hard every day to cultivate innovative partnerships, to offer members enriching programs focused on holistic wellness, and to create a welcoming space for all.

In July, I encourage you to join us for exciting special events like a play reading, a singing concert, a puppetry performance, and cooking, gardening, and movement classes in community gardens with LUNGS. Look at our calendars in the lobby for the most up-to-date information!

I look forward to having a fulfilling year in service of you, and I thank you for being a part of the Sirovich community.

WEEKLY CLASS CHANGES

DID YOU KNOW THAT UNPAID VOLUNTEERS TEACH HALF OF OUR CLASSES?

Unfortunately, having a limited budget for paid instructors means that sometimes we have to remove classes that are not as well attended as others, even ones that are beloved:

- AQUABEATS W/DEEKEE – Removed from Monday schedule in July
- MASALA BHANGRA W/CLOE – Removed from Thursday schedule in July
- BODY SMART W/ANDREW – To be removed from Thursday schedule in August

Make sure you show us just how much you love your class by signing in!

100%

Did you know that Sirovich Kitchen passed its June 2018 Department of Health Inspection with a perfect score? That's right, no violations found! Be sure to congratulate our Kitchen Staff & Facilities Staff on a job well done.

On June 29th, Sirovich members and clients from EA's Center for Recovery & Wellness had a blast performing together at our first intergenerational Poetry Slam. Even Executive Vice President of Program & Strategy Jonathan Skolnick and Sirovich's Program Director Xiomara Maldonado performed! Sign up for the next one in the office.
