- Thomas Jefferson

One cannot deal with a problem with the same thinking that creates it.

Albert Einstein

Challenge for Council

The heaviest penalty for declining to rule is to be ruled by someone inferior to yourself.

Plato

The Challenge for Council

- The Shaman from the amazonas asked us why do we need to write all the time and we said that we wrote in case we forgot what he was saying. He then said how can we forget a good story that taught so much. . . . I guess there is a space for writing things but most of it is for listening and living and the more we live it the more the knowledge becomes portent to guide us along our paths and purpose as we live through our sunrises and sunsets.

How do we get the story told?
