NEWSLETTER NO. 4, FEBRUARY 1994

Management Committee

We advise that John Scanlon has resigned from the position of Chairperson due to his appointment as chief of staff for the Minister of Environment and Natural Resources, David Wotton MP. The committee recorded its appreciation of John's contribution to ELCAS during his position as Chairperson.

The position of Chairperson has been filled by Paul Leadbeter (who previously held the position of Secretary) and Sally Lock has been elected Secretary.

Roster

Enclosed is the advisory panel roster for the months of March to October 1994. Would you please note your roster day in your diary straight away. We thank existing panel members for their continued support and welcome the new members on to the panel. A memo to ELCAS advisors is enclosed to inform new members (and remind current members) of the procedures.

Pro Bono

There is a continuing demand for pro bono work, particularly in the form of written opinions. We currently have a few firms and a couple of barristers who have offered to undertake pro bono work, however, we would be delighted to have more solicitors and barristers putting their names forward to share the burden. Please contact a member of the Management Committee if you or your firm are willing to be added to the list.

Dinner

A dinner has been organised to farewell John Scanlon, welcome new panel members and generally provide a get together for advisors and friends of ELCAS. The details of the dinner are:

Date: Wednesday, 9 March 1994
Time: 7.30pm
Venue: Villa Borghese
218 Rundle Street
(cnr Rundle Street and Frome Road)

We look forward to seeing you there. Please RSVP to Elisa de Wit on 212 4903 by Friday 4 March 1994.

If anyone has any comments on ELCAS or requires any further information please do not hesitate to contact Penny Wright on 346 2445 or Elisa de Wit on 212 4903.
