HONORING TWO DEDICATED LEADERS:

FRANK ETTAWAGESHIK will receive the Helen & William Milliken Distinguished Service Award for his wise and inspired environmental leadership over the past four decades. Serving with many groups, he has steadfastly fought to treat natural resources—especially our cherished waters—as treasures to be preserved, not commodities to be sold.

MICHIGAN ENVIRONMENTAL COUNCIL is a coalition of more than 70 organizations. Acting as the most trusted environmental voice in the State Capitol, we strive to achieve positive change by enacting public policy solutions.

KAREN HARRISON will be presented the Petoskey Prize for Environmental Leadership in recognition of her unwavering grassroots commitment to the Au Sable River. She has worked tirelessly since 2003 to protect it, distinguishing herself as a strong conservationist, a prolific fundraiser, an organizer extraordinaire, and an effective leader of two groups that work to defend the waterway.
