

The Benefits of EPIP Institutional Membership

Professional & Leadership Development

EPIP offers professional development for emerging, inclusive philanthropic professionals looking to learn how to center equity throughout their work and interactions.

Benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Philanthropology™ Curriculum
- Regular Webinars
- Chapter Leadership Opportunities
- Discounted Coaching
- Monthly Newsletter
- Quarterly People of Color Network Newsletter
- EPIP Blog

coming in 2020

Community Building

EPIP offers your staff opportunities to connect with and build a community with a national network of emerging philanthropic professionals across the sector.

Benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Discounted registrations to EPIP's 2020 conference & other events
- People of Color Network (PCN)
- 16 Chapters across the country

Advocacy & Innovation

As an organization with nearly 20 years of experience with emerging leaders, we are uniquely poised to bring their needs and concerns to the table as we work with the sector to build organizations where all staff can bring their full identities to the workplace. We intend for our work in this area to integrate with a growing body of work around organizational effectiveness and DEI.

Benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Virtual brown bags at your institution on EPIP research
- Advocacy and innovation skill building at the national & chapter level
