SCHEDULE

Workshop 1: Protecting every woman & girl from FGM

With the 2030 target to end female genital mutilation in sight, we invite participants to explore experiences of countries with little support for measurement, advocacy, policy creation & implementation. Let’s discuss challenges and platforms our international community must address to protect every woman and girl from FGM, regardless of where in the world she is. Each session is 45 minutes long.

Monday 3 June
1530 FGM in Asia

Tuesday 4 June
0945 FGM in the Americas
1100 FGM in the Middle East
1330 FGM in non UN Joint Programme countries in Africa
1500 FGM in Europe and EurAsia

Workshop 2: How can the women’s rights movement and tech work together to protect women & girls from online sexual exploitation?

What is the responsibility of lawmakers and tech companies in addressing the challenges of online sexual exploitation? How can we focus on the perpetrator? How can the women’s rights movement be part of the conversation? All are welcome to discuss this trending topic.

Wednesday 5 June
1030 Open discussion
1400 Open discussion
1530 Listening to Digital Natives: Young voices informing the discussion

Our micro-workshops are designed for up to six people. To register email ethompson@equalitynow.org or DM us on Insta/Twitter with the title and time of the workshop.
