

2019 Community Services Expo

Connecting Communities to Services

Tuesday 6 August 2019

We invite you to come and learn about opportunities available to refugee communities in South Western Sydney

LEARN

about available services, assistance and support provided by government and non-governmental service providers for your immediate settlement and long-term integration in Australia.

CONNECT

with settlement service providers, employment support agencies, English language support centres, education and vocational training institutions, legal awareness programs and community development organisations.

MEET

community leaders, representatives of community associations and members of other refugee communities to discuss practical ways of collaboration, build your professional and community networks and learn from the settlement experience of other people

Organised by Edmund Rice Centre for Justice and Community Education and Patrician Brothers' College, Fairfield. Light refreshments provided.

When:

Tuesday, 6th August 2019
