Introduction

For many years the Edmund Rice Centre (ERC) has been working to raise awareness of, and advocate for, the needs and rights of asylum seekers and refugees. Each year we publish a great deal of information in the form of reports, newsletters, audio visual material and media commentary.

This ERC Education Resource specifically converts much of our published information into curriculum support material that addresses the learning needs of school students. The aim is to support students and their teachers in their study of asylum seekers and refugees, helping them to understand the background of the people seeking refuge and to separate the myths from the facts.

The cross-curricular activities presented in this publication are designed to help educate participants to think about the complex issue of asylum seekers and refugees with compassion and thus to engage the heart as well as the mind in this critically important issue.

The activities are engaging, creative and informative and many of them focus on real people and their stories. They suit all learners, can be used within the framework of the recently introduced National Curriculum and can be adapted to every year level in secondary school. Some activities can also be used with primary classes, students with special needs, and community groups.

The story of asylum seekers and refugees and the issues that impact on their lives are examined from many different angles. There is also plenty of scope for teachers to add their own particular focus to link it with specific subject areas or topics of study. They can be presented as individual lessons or combined to make up a unit of work. Teachers can also extend the activities, if more depth and research is required for assessment tasks or group work.
Many people have offered feedback, ideas and expertise in the development of this project: to my colleagues at the Edmund Rice Centre, thank you for your support, involvement and inspiration. Also, to the many teachers, volunteers, Australian Catholic University, Diocese of Broken Bay, St Patrick’s College Strathfield and Norton Rose Fulbright Australia. Your input has helped to shape this resource. A special thank you to all who have shared their personal stories. This project has been a work of true collaboration.

Ultimately, asylum seekers and refugees seek protection from persecution. How we meet and deal with them is a measure of our humanity. Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, “I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word.”(King, 1964)

Peace is only possible when we recognise the rights of individual human beings and their innate dignity.

Best wishes for your study

Additional Resources for Teachers
Note to Presenters

- When using this resource, presenter need to be aware that there may be people in the school community who are former asylum seekers and refugees.

- Teachers and other presenters need to be sensitive to what may arise during this study in terms of emotions, memories, reactions and insights, for all the people participating in this study.

- There is currently a movement to make the issue of Asylum Seekers and Refugees more compassionate, and easy for people to understand. So, the language around it is changing. We are being encouraged to use the terms refugees and people seeking asylum. The term refugees now comes first followed by people seeking asylum.

BUILDING THE FIELD OF KNOWLEDGE

Whilst the likely Key Learning Areas for the following activities have been suggested, many can be used as preparatory or foundation activities to build the field of knowledge for the topic Asylum Seekers and Refugees in any curriculum area.

These activities can be used:

- Separately as learning tasks, group tasks or they can build a complete unit of work;
- As assessment tasks. e.g. Activity 13, 20, 21, 22, 26 and 31;
- As activities for Social Justice Day and World Refugee Day (June 20);
- They can also be adapted for use in all Year levels, unless otherwise specifically stated.
Definitions

Human right: A basic, universal freedom or entitlement inherent to all human beings.¹

Asylum seeker: A person who is currently seeking protection as a refugee and is still waiting to have his/her application for refugee status assessed.²

Refugee: A person who has sought protection in another country and has been successful in their application.

A refugee is someone who is outside their own country and cannot return due to a well-founded fear of persecution because of their:

- Race
- Religion
- Nationality
- Membership of a particular social group or
- Political opinion

As a signatory to the 1951 United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees, Australia has sworn a commitment to offer protection to people who have fled from their home country due to a real threat to their lives and/or basic freedoms. When Australia ratified the convention it became part of Australian law. By signing the Convention (and the 1967 Protocol), Australia declared its belief in the universal human right to seek asylum and the right of asylum seekers to have their claims fairly heard.³

12. THEATRE IN EDUCATION

Use the research from Activities 6 (Definitions), 7 (A Fact-Finding Mission), 8 (Why Do People Leave Their Homeland?) and 9 (Where Do the Asylum Seekers and Refugees Come From?) to devise and present a Theatre in Education piece suitable for performance to Year 5 and 6 students.

Teachers may find it useful to develop the script for this activity from the real life experiences explored in Activity 14, or from recounts of peoples’ experiences found on the internet. The website “New Humans of Australia” has migrant and refugee stories.

http://www.newhumansofaustralia.com/ 10

13. BE AN INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER (ASSESSMENT TASK)

The recounts that were researched in Activity 12, may give the students ideas into the kinds of topics refugees would like to talk about. Imagine you are a reporter for a television network. State what program and network you are with. Create an interview with an asylum seeker or refugee.

a) Write an interview list of questions.

b) Write a script providing background information about asylum seekers and refugees and include some visual material.

c) If you have the opportunity and permission (written), ask the questions in person and film the interview.

14. Connecting With People and Their Stories

a) Invite some students and their parents from your school or a neighbouring school who are former asylum seekers and refugees to tell their stories to the class.

b) Make contact with an organisation that supports asylum seekers and refugees and invite people to come to the school to share their stories with students.

c) Arrange for students to visit the organisation and talk with and meet the people who are connecting with the organisation, as well as those who are supporting asylum seekers and refugees.

• Students devise their own questions to ask.

• Students report back to the wider group about their experience and learning.

• Activity 26 (What Do You Recommend) can be the report.

• This activity may be explored by bringing the words and experiences of the people the students have listened to, spoken with, or researched, as a theatre piece that can be shared with other students. This is outlined in Activity 12.

15. What Do You Know About The Edmund Rice Centre?

Go to the Edmund Rice Centre website www.erc.org.au

Read what is written about asylum seekers and refugees.

Examine what is currently being featured.

a) Summarise it in 10 dot points OR 2 short paragraphs.
b) Write a paragraph about a project or initiative at the Edmund Rice Centre that interests you.

c) Why did you choose this project or initiative? eg. Pacific Calling Partnership.

d) Design another logo for the Edmund Rice Centre.

e) Describe the symbols and colours you have used in the new logo. What do they represent?

16. Who Are Supporting Asylum Seekers and Refugees?

Choose a way to record your summary about the work of one of the following listed organisations involved in working with and for asylum seekers and refugees:

20. Tell The Story (Group Assessment Task)

a) Make your own short film or PowerPoint presentation about a particular aspect of your study on asylum seekers and refugees that you would like to develop further.

25. FORM A GROUP

Form a group in your school that is interested in fostering human rights, social justice, eco-justice, and advocacy. Invite staff and students to participate. Give the group a name.

The group can:

• Meet to discuss specific issues of human rights, social justice, eco-justice and advocacy. Decide what you are going to focus on e.g. the latest developments with asylum seekers and refugees in Australia.

• Make a banner for your group or design a logo to use for your meetings and presentations.

• Organise a fundraiser for a non-government organisation or local organisation that supports asylum seekers and refugees. Present them with a cheque at the school assembly.

• Organise an awareness raising event in the school for Social Justice Day or World Refugee Day (June 20).

• Plan a liturgy for your class group, year or whole school (See Activity 33).

• Contact one of the local groups that provide goods and services for asylum seekers and refugees in your community and find out what they need e.g. food, clothing, furniture. Organise a collection drive in your school.

• Do a five minute presentation at the school assembly once a month to highlight what is happening with regard to asylum seekers globally, nationally and in your local area.
• Invite others to speak to your group, class or whole school about their story or experiences. You may invite students and their parents from your school or local community who may be former asylum seekers and refugees, or guest speakers from organisations that are involved in working with and for asylum seekers and refugees e.g. Edmund Rice Centre, Refugee Council, Amnesty, House of Welcome, Settlement Services International, Migrant Resource Centre.
