

Jack Thomas Charlie
Pickles

Age 14

April 4, 2000 -

February 2, 2015

Todmorden, England

Jack is a bright and artistic lad, he loves life and people. He is always making people laugh, pranking and messing around, then in class he was the ideal pupil as he helps others. I never knew how many people Jack had touched in his 14 years, he still surprises me every day with the love he left behind in so many people.
