18 Should you wish to provide details of any initiatives that you feel are particularly outstanding, or that have resulted in improved gender equality outcomes in your workplace, please enter this information below. (Please note that any information you provide here will appear in your public report)

19 You may provide additional details on any information provided in the report below.

Many of the answers provided have been "no" because there is no single formal policy applying to the entire organisation and the practices vary between elected officers and staff employees -each branch applies its own policies usually to suit individual circumstances - arrangements are worked out between the Branch Secretary and the employee or officer concerned for access to flexible working hours, part time work, job sharing, paid parental leave etc. Some Branches have formalised some of these measures in Staff EBAs but as these measures vary between States they cannot be attributed to the entire organisation.

Staff employee conditions are more likely to be formalised because staff EBAs are in place. However, not all employment practices have been formalised in the EBA and many practices related to the implementation of parental leave, helping staff balance family and work responsibilities or dealing with family or domestic violence are dealt with individually. Further, each Branch has a separate EBA covering employee conditions differently so blanket statements regarding the availability of these measures cannot be made to cover the entire organisation.

Officers pay rates and conditions are set out in the rules of the organisation. Officers are primarily male and are less likely to seek access to policies related to family and caring responsibilities. Where such help is required it is negotiated on an individual basis.
