

Meet Labour's new team of MEPs: your voice in Europe

From reforms to the European economy, to working for a fairer society, from fighting crime, to tackling climate change and extending your rights, Britain needs European solutions as well as local and national action. Come to our stand to find out more about how Labour MEPs are campaigning to get Europe working and for a reformed EU that works best for Britain. Come to our stand or events to find out more...

Follow us on twitter at @eurolabour and sign up at eurolabour.org.uk for a monthly round up of Labour's work in the European Parliament.

Scotland
David Martin MEP Catherine Stihler MEP

North East
Paul Brannen MEP Jude Kirton-Darling MEP

Yorkshire and Humber
Richard Corbett MEP
Linda McAvan MEP

East Midlands
Glenis Willmott MEP

Eastern
Richard Howitt MEP

London
Mary Honeyball MEP
Claude Moraes MEP
Lucy Anderson MEP
Seb Dance MEP

North West
Julie Ward MEP Afzal Khan MEP
Theresa Griffin MEP

Wales
Derek Vaughan MEP

West Midlands
Neena Gill MEP
Si n Simon MEP

South West
Clare Moody MEP

South East
Anneliese Dodds MEP

To contact your Labour MEP go to: www.eurolabour.org.uk/your-meps

Our conference events:

Fringe: Reform not retreat: building Labour's campaign for Britain in Europe

Monday 22nd September, 12:30 - 14:30

Midland Hotel, Trafford Suite. Lunch provide.

How can Labour make the case for the UK remaining at the heart of a reformed Europe? What are the key issues? How can we work to build a practical and popular campaign?

Europe Reception

Monday 22nd September, 19:00 - 21:00

Midland Hotel, Alexandra Suite A

Ed Miliband MP - Leader of the Labour Party

Harriet Harman MP - Deputy Leader of the Labour Party

Glenis Willmott MEP - Leader of the EPLP

Douglas Alexander MP - Shadow Foreign Secretary

Iain Mc Nicol - General Secretary of the Labour Party

Paul Kenny - GMB General Secretary

(Members only ticketed event, supported by TULO)

Fringe: 'Responding to the rise of populism: What agenda for the Left?'

Tuesday 23rd September, 08:30 - 10:00

Exchange 9, Manchester Central, Exchange 9. (Breakfast provided)

Speakers from sister parties share their experiences and discuss how the left should respond to the rise of populist, anti-establishment parties.