

TIME	SESSION	PRESENTER	SESSION STYLE	SESSION OUTLINE
8.45-8.50	Opening	Federation	One Presenter	Natalie Hallam, Accreditation and Capacity Building Coordinator Acknowledgement of Country and Welcome to CPD Day.
8.50-9.00	Update	PSS	One Presenter	Brendan Lacota Co-Chair to introduce the PSS Committee.
9.00-9.30	Ethics and Professional Responsibility	LSB+C	One Presenter Half point	An Invitation to Innovate Innovative practice and do regulatory barriers really exist? We see innovation as more than technology: its service delivery re-imagined and covers all sorts of things including unbundled legal services, new costing models and tailored legal information.
9.30-10.30	Ethics and Professional Responsibility	MHLS Villamanta VLA	Panel Discussion 1 point	Navigating a new landscape for clients with disability in everyday Community Legal Centre practice There are a range of legal issues that can arise out of participation in the NDIS, including consumer contracts, debt and employment law. This session will demonstrate ways we can make NDIS work best for the people we work with.
MORNING TEA 10.30-11.00
11.00-12.00	Substantive Law	Women's Legal Service	Panel Discussion 1 point	When Child Protection, Family Law and Family Violence collide A facilitated discussion looking at substantive and practical legal issues, and ethical considerations which arise when a client is facing the combined legal jurisdictions of child protection, family law and family violence.
12.00-12.10	Data Standards	Federation	Federation Update	A quick update on the data project and roll out of upcoming training Kieran Prendergast will also be available for Q&A over lunch.
LUNCH 12.10-1.00
1.00-2.00	Practice Management and Business Skills	JobWatch Neophytes Network	Panel Discussion 1 point	Workplace Bullying and Employment Law This session will consider the definition of workplace bullying and who can apply for a stop bullying order. There will be a focus on practical examples. There will be a second part about wellbeing and managing stress from the perspective of new lawyers in the sector.
2.00-3.00	Professional Skills	LACW Darebin	Two Presenters 1 point	What makes you so exceptional? The gendered impact of bail reform in a state driven by fear Changes to bail laws and the early impact of those changes on women. Case examples and arguments lawyers can make when representing women on bail applications.
AFTERNOON TEA 3.00-3.30
3.30-4.30	Substantive Law	LCCLC Djirra	Two Presenters 1 point	Child Protection and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families Specific issues and legislation regarding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children, placement principals, cultural plans and addressing inequalities of Child Protection matters relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and families.