

FOR SUBSCRIBERS ONLY ▶

Election Blog: Appeals court asks Supreme Court to take voter ID suit

3/28/2012

The 2nd District Appeals Court today asked the Wisconsin Supreme Court to take up the state's appeal in the NAACP's voter ID lawsuit.

A Dane County judge ruled the voter ID law violated the state Constitution and issued an injunction preventing enforcement of the requirement.

The appeals court wrote in its certification this morni...

READ MORE

MARCH 28

Election Blog: La Follette to run for governor ▶

Barrett's decision on recall candidacy would shake up race ▶

Judges say they will redraw maps, but with limited changes ▶

Poll: Wis. recall election a free-for-all ▶

Romney leads Santorum in new poll of GOP presidential primary voters ▶

Santorum brings his message to Wisconsin ▶

Falk hunts for support in Rhinelander ▶

Justice Gableman rules against Michael Best ▶

Ryan, Kind top list for receiving corporate campaign contributions ▶

Ryan challenger delivers Medicare message to congressman's Racine office ▶

Former Bucyrus CEO calls for reform of employment programs ▶

Milwaukee Co. sheriff calls for shifting offenders on monitoring into jail ▶

Waukesha responds to 3 mayors'

Recall petitions defendant asks for

SEARCH:

ADVERTISEMENT

PROTECT WISCONSIN KIDS.
PROTECT BADGERCARE.

ADVERTISEMENT

WISPOLITICS.COM SOCIAL NEWS

FOLLOW US

