

LET'S PROTECT OUR CHILDREN

We have just a few weeks before investments in education, early childhood, and child nutrition fall off the next budget cliff. But some plans in Congress would deny kids health care and make problems like child hunger and poverty worse.

At just 8% of the federal budget, kids are not the problem. Let's find a budget solution that protects the investments that work for kids.

