45-Day Comment Period

Comment/Response Spreadsheet 978.30(a.b) Requirements for Registration of Assault Weapons

Number Free, Summary of Commerce and Disagrees by attempting to require critizens to submit to regulation not required or allowed under the 2nd amendment.   The Regulations not required or allowed under the 2nd amendment.   The requirement to register assault weapons is set in statute.   The requirement of control of the 2nd and statute and the 2nd and statute of correctors (CDC) identification cand, and statute of correctors (CDC) identification cand cand cand cand cand cand cand can	978.50(a,	D) Re	9/8.30(a,b) Requirements for Registration of Assault Weapons	ons
Regulations infinge upon the constitutional rights of all citizens by attempting to require citizens to submit to registration not required or allowed under the 2nd amendment.  Bisagrees with Article 3 #978.30, the registration procedures.  Regulations need to include provision for prison inmates to register.  Section (b) 1. Needs to include inmates California and statement to notify CDC of assault weapons information/registration requirements. Due to the fact that the inmate cannot get to the weapons to provide the requested information, a second party needs to be included in Section 978.30.  The regulation does not make a provision for firearms with extra barrels, or what must be done if the barrel must be changed in order to comply with safety or hunting regulations.  Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.		Freq.		Response
B Disagrees with Article 3 #978.30, the registration procedures.  Regulations need to include provision for prison inmates to register.  Section (b) 1. Needs to include inmates California Department of Corrections (CDC) identification card, and statement to notify CDC of assault weapons information/registration requirements. Due to the fact that the inmate cannot get to the weapons to provide the requested information, a second party needs to be included in Section 978.30.  The regulation doesn't state what happens to a registered weapon once the owner dies.  The regulation does not make a provision for firearms with extra barrels, or what must be done if the barrel must be changed in order to comply with safety or hunting regulations.  Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.		۲		The comment addresses the statute and not the proposed regulations.
Regulations need to include provision for prison inmates to register.  Section (b) 1. Needs to include inmates California Department of Corrections (CDC) identification card, and statement to notify CDC of assault weapons information/registration requirements. Due to the fact that the inmate cannot get to the weapons to provide the requested information, a second party needs to be included in Section 978.30.  The regulation doesn't state what happens to a registered weapon once the owner dies.  The regulation does not make a provision for firearms with extra barrels, or what must be done if the barrel must be changed in order to comply with safety or hunting regulations.  Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.	A7.02	ω	Disagrees with Article 3 #978.30, the registration procedures.	The requirement to register assault weapons is set in statute. The purpose of the regulations is to implement the statute.
Section (b) 1. Needs to include inmates California Department of Corrections (CDC) identification card, and statement to notify CDC of assault weapons information/registration requirements. Due to the fact that the inmate cannot get to the weapons to provide the requested information, a second party needs to be included in Section 978.30.  The regulation doesn't state what happens to a registered weapon once the owner dies.  The regulation does not make a provision for firearms with extra barrels, or what must be done if the barrel must be changed in order to comply with safety or hunting regulations.  Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.	A7.03	-	s need to include provision for prison inmates	The Department disagrees with the comment. PC section 12021(a)(1) prohibits possession of firearms by felons.
The regulation doesn't state what happens to a registered weapon once the owner dies.  The regulation does not make a provision for firearms with extra barrels, or what must be done if the barrel must be changed in order to comply with safety or hunting regulations.  Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.	A7.04	-	Section (b) 1. Needs to include inmates California Department of Corrections (CDC) identification card, and statement to notify CDC of assault weapons information/registration requirements. Due to the fact that the inmate cannot get to the weapons to provide the requested information, a second party needs to be included in Section 978.30.	The Department disagrees with the comment. PC section 12021(a)(1) prohibits possession of firearms by felons.
<ul> <li>The regulation does not make a provision for firearms with extra barrels, or what must be done if the barrel must be changed in order to comply with safety or hunting regulations.</li> <li>Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.</li> </ul>	A7.05	-		The Department disagrees that the regulation must include procedures for assault weapon disposition upon the death of the registered owner. PC section 12285(b)(1) specifies the disposition options for assault weapons upon the death of registered owner.
Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.	A7.06	9	SI	The Department agrees with the comment. The requirement that barrel length information be provided on the registration application has been deleted in response to this comment. The lawful changing of barrels will not affect the registration.
	A7.07	7	Suggests that barrel length requirement be removed as it is not specifically in the law.	PC section 12285(a) authorizes the Department to require any information it deems necessary for registration. However, in response to other comments, the barrel length requirement has been deleted from the proposed regulation.