2019 TRAINEE LAWYER RECRUITMENT INFORMATION

The Fitzroy Legal Service (FLS) opened its doors in December 1972. FLS is a community-based organisation, independent of government, assisting members of the community whose access to legal resources is limited.

VISION
To be an independent and influential voice that empowers and strengthens the community through access to legal services, education, information and law reform activities.

VALUES
Empowerment, integrity, respect, quality and participation.

Our services include:
- a legal advice service that operates five nights a week, staffed primarily by volunteer lawyers;
- an outreach service and four specialist legal advice clinics (specialising in family law, animal law and LGBTIQ-related legal issues);
- a self-funding day practice that offers criminal and family law casework and court representation;
- a Drug Outreach Lawyer program that provides community legal education, referral, advice, advocacy and ongoing casework services to drug users on an outreach basis through health justice partnerships;
- assistance with family law and family violence on an outreach basis through health justice partnerships in the City of Yarra;
- two community lawyers providing advice, casework and support services at the Neighbourhood Justice Centre;
- an employment law clinic focused on assisting individuals on student or migrant worker visas who are being exploited by their employer;
- community development and community legal education activities, public interest litigation, law reform and the development of legal research and policy; and
- Publication of The Law Handbook (LHB) [hard copy, eBook and online] as well as other websites and resources.

This document outlines the process for applying for the Fitzroy Legal Service 2019 Trainee Lawyer position.

POSITION OBJECTIVE
This position is an opportunity to experience and contribute to the breadth of legal assistance services provided by the Fitzroy Legal Service. In addition to the Practical Legal Training Course, during the course of the 12 month position, we will provide you with a professional development program designed to equip you with the skills and knowledge to be a successful CLC lawyer.

The Trainee Lawyer will assist legal staff in providing advice, advocacy and casework services to clients. This is undertaken under the supervision of the Principal Solicitor and with appropriate training provided to allow the Trainee Lawyer to complete their requirements for admission to the Council of Legal Education Board of Examiners. Unless otherwise negotiated, this will involve undertaking the College of Law Practical Legal Training program, with time off provided to enable course work to be completed.

The Trainee Lawyer will provide support to legal staff by drafting correspondence, taking instructions from clients, preparing briefs and general management of casework files. The Trainee Lawyer will also spend some time at the...
Neighbourhood Justice Centre and also be involved in community development, education, policy, strategic litigation and law reform work.

Like all Fitzroy Legal Service employees, the Trainee Lawyer is expected to support and promote organisational values and objectives. This position is generously funded by Allens.
